JAPAN JOINS HITLER; WARNING GIVEN U. S.

BERLIN, Sept. 27 (AP)—Germany, Italy and Japan welded a new totalitarian bloc today with a one-for-all and all-for-one pledge of aid against any new enemy entering either the European or China war—an implicit warning to the United States.

With Adolf Hitler as an onlooker, the Rome-Berlin foreign ministers and the Japanese ambassador to Berlin signed a solemn 10-year military and economic treaty declaring the readiness of the three governments to join their 250,000,000 people as world-scale battle comrades.

Advance preparations for such an eventuality were written into the treaty by an immediate undertaking for joint technical consultations by representatives of the three powers.

The three powers formally divided spheres of world influence, Japan being recognized as the leader in founding a "new order in Greater East Asia" and Germany and Italy for "establishment of a new order in Europe."

PACT FOR MUTUAL WAR AID

The three powers affirmed that the terms in no way affect the political status of any one of them as regards Soviet Russia. Germany, with her Russian non-aggression pact, is the closest of the three to the U. S. S. R.

The pact brings together the original membership of the anti-Comintern accord but goes infinitely farther than the old agreement to exchange information for curbing activities of international Communists.

As for their world front, the Tokyo-Rome-Berlin signatories pledged "to assist one another with all political, economic and military means when one of the three contracting powers is attacked by a power not at present involved in the European war or in the Chinese-Japanese conflict."

That was the kernel of the pact.

Fascist authorities in Rome indicated plainly that the pact meant a united front against any attempt by the United States to interfere with them in any territory they consider "living space."

WARNS U. S. ON AID

Spain, herself apparently ready to cast her lot with these three mightier nations, rejoined in her press at Japan's signing on the dotted line, and typical of the comment was this:

"The United States faces the alternative of renouncing its plans or of intervening immediately against the new totalitarian allies without awaiting execution of its grandiose rearmament program."

One newspaper cautioned "En-cle Sam" against aiding Britain. —Editor's Note.

To neutral observers the most obvious effect of the treaty was to insure that should the United States enter the war she would be immediately engaged in the Pacific—under the terms of the mutual assistance clause—with a fleet so big that she would be unable to come to Britain's aid in the Atlantic or Mediterranean.

(The Japanese navy is the world's third largest, almost equal to the German and Italian combined.—Editor's note.)

U. S. ON TWO WAR FRONTS

If the United States wants to mix in the present war, she must fight on two fronts and be prepared to join battle against the 250,000,000 Teutons, Latins and Japanese—this, in effect, was the meaning of the three-power pact.

While no particular nation was mentioned, it was clear to the whole audience at the palatial chancellery for the signing ceremony that the pact was intended as a warning to America. The audience consisted of some 200 newspapermen as well as representatives of the German government and the Italian and Japanese embassies.

Fascists in Rome declared the pact was intended to forestall

Text of Axis-Jap Treaty

BERLIN, Sept. 27 (AP)—Following is the official English translation of the treaty of Berlin signed today:

Three-power pact between Germany, Italy and Japan.

The governments of Germany, Italy and Japan, considering it as a condition precedent of any lasting peace that all nations of the world be given each its own proper place, have decided to stand by and cooperate with one another in regard to their efforts in Greater East Asia and regions of Europe respectively wherein it is their prime purpose to establish and maintain a new order of things calculated to promote the mutual prosperity and welfare of the peoples concerned.

Furthermore, it is the desire of the three governments to extend cooperation to such nations in other spheres of the world as may be inclined to put forth endeavors along lines similar to their own, in order that their ultimate aspirations for world peace may thus be realized.

Accordingly, the governments of Germany, Italy and Japan have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE ONE

Japan recognizes and respects the leadership of Germany and Italy in establishment of a new order in Europe.

ARTICLE TWO

Germany and Italy recognize and respect the leadership of Japan in the establishment of a new order in Greater East Asia.

ARTICLE THREE

Germany, Italy and Japan agree to cooperate in their efforts on aforesaid lines. They further undertake to assist one another with all political, economic and military means when one of the three contracting powers is attacked by a power at present not involved in the European war or in the Chinese-Japanese conflict.

ARTICLE FOUR

With the view to implementing the present pact, joint technical commissions, members which are to be appointed by the respective governments of Germany, Italy and Japan will meet without delay.

ARTICLE FIVE

Germany, Italy and Japan affirm that the aforesaid terms do not in any way affect the political status which exists at present as between each of three contracting parties and Soviet Russia.

ARTICLE SIX

The present pact shall come into effect immediately upon signature and shall remain in force ten years from the date of its coming into force. At the proper time before expiration of said term, the high contracting parties shall at the request of any of them enter into negotiations for its renewal.

In faith whereof, the undersigned duly authorized by their respective governments have signed this pact and have affixed hereto their signatures.

Done in triplicate at Berlin, the 27th day of September, 1940, in the 18th year of the Fascist era, corresponding to the 27th day of the ninth month of the 15th year of Showa (the reign of Emperor Hirohito).

500 NAZI BOMBERS BLAST LONDON; RAF DOWNS 98

LONDON, Sept. 27—German warplanes attacked all England by the howling hundreds today in one of the mightiest aerial offensives yet launched in the long battle for Britain, and late in the afternoon at least 98 of the raiders had been officially declared shot down.

The defense thus was operating with a fury not seen in nearly two weeks. During the raids more than 500 Nazi bombers and fighters swarmed on London and other English cities.

The figure was still considerably short of the all-time record of more than 190 German planes brought down by anti-aircraft and the R. A. F. two weeks ago.

DRAMATIC SKY BATTLE

A great air battle was fought within the sight of observers in a southwest London suburb this afternoon with at least 100 British and German planes filling the skies after three grand-scale attacks had been made by the Nazis in a renewal of their mass assaults on the capital.

Sixty German planes attacked a southwestern town, dropping a number of bombs before ground fire broke up the formation. British fighters then pursued the Germans to the channel.

New tactics were followed by the raiders. They came over in small formations, followed by fighter groups who piled into the combat when British fighters attacked the bombers.

Furious dogfights raged all

Mary Cushing Bride Of Vincent Astor

By MAURY PAUL

NEW YORK, Sept. 27—Vincent Astor, the U. S. A.'s No. 1 "matrimonial catch" and largest single owner of New York real estate, conferred his name on tall, slim and beautiful Mary Cushing at noon today.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Charging mental cruelty, Mrs. Elise M. Lapham of Hyde Park today wins uncontested divorce against George F. Lapham, who, she testified, started running around with another woman after six years of marriage. This was the first time in five years mental cruelty was cited in Suffolk court. Story on Page 9

While there have been rumors that Mr. Astor would make Miss Cushing his bride, news of today's wedding at East Hampton, L. I., will come as a complete surprise to society—plans for the ceremony having been kept secret until almost the moment Mr. Astor arrived at Heatherdune, the ocean-front villa where the bride's mother, Mrs. Harvey Cushing, of New Haven, Ct., has passed the summer.

All week the 265-ft. Astor yacht, Nourmahal, lay anchored in the Hudson river, off 70th st. Late yesterday afternoon Mr. Astor, his mother, Lady Ribblesdale (the former Mrs. John Jacob Astor) and William Rhinelander Stewart, Jr., whose friendship with the head of the Astor family dates back to their boyhood days, went aboard the Nourmahal and orders were given to steam to Montauk, L. I.

CRUISE OF ROMANCE

Officers and members of the Nourmahal's crew were unaware they were embarking on a "Cruise of Romance." For it was announced Mr. Astor would spend the week-end on the tip end of Long Island playing golf with Mr. Stewart.

In an effort to cloak further his movements with secrecy, Mr. Astor took his golf clubs with him as he disembarked from the Nourmahal at Montauk about 10:30 this morning and, with Mr. Stewart, entered a motor car which carried them to nearby East Hampton.

Lady Ribblesdale followed in another car and arrived at Heatherdune. Mr. Astor quickly changed from his sports attire and joined his bride-to-be in the drawing room of the Cushing estate, the wide windows of which afford a commanding view of the Atlantic and distant sand dunes.

It took less than eight minutes for the very simple ceremony, at which Mrs. Cushing presented her daughter in marriage. Mr. Stewart was Mr. Astor's best man, and the only additional witnesses were the bride's sister, Mrs. Betsey Cushing Roosevelt, former wife of James Roosevelt, and her small daughters, Sarah and Kate Roosevelt, grandchildren of President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

DRIVEN TO YACHT

The floral decorations in the drawing room at Heatherdune were late summer flowers from the Cushing garden, and the new Mrs. Astor was attired in an afternoon dress with a prune-colored crepe bodice and a full skirt of the same material in varying shades of fuchsia. Her hat, made by Lilly Dache, was of prune-colored felt with a cut-out crown, and she carried a cluster of white orchids.

Due to the simplicity which both Mr. Astor and his bride had insisted upon, there was no reception.

MOTLEY APPEALS FOR DRAFT AIDES

Acting on instructions given him by Adjutant General Edgar C. Erickson, Chairman William A. Motley of the Boston municipal election commission began today the task of organizing a volunteer staff of at least 2500 unpaid workers to handle selective service registration, Oct. 16, under the new U. S. peacetime draft law.

Chairman Motley said his first step would be a mail appeal to regular precinct officers who served at balloting places in the recent primary.

All of these will be asked to give at least part of the day, Oct. 16, for registration work.

Chairman Motley estimated, however, he would also need many hundred citizen volunteers.

He must also name a prominent citizen to serve as chief registration officer at each of the city's 386 precinct polling places.

Since Oct. 16 has not been designated as a State or national holiday, Motley expects the greatest rush of potential draftees will be in the late afternoon or evening after working hours.

To handle this swelling tide of men and youths of draft age, Motley intends to have at least eight clerks on duty from 4 p. m. in each precinct.

Four clerks will be on duty during early hours of the day.

Figures compiled by state and federal agencies indicate 15 per cent of Boston's total 817,713 residents are eligible for the draft and must register, Chairman Motley said.

This would amount to a total of 122,657, an average of 320 to a precinct.

Chairman Motley said a 1 member and employees of the election commission will receive direct instructions from Adj.-Gen. Erickson at a State House meeting Oct. 2.

On Oct. 13, Chairman Motley will instruct and swear in the 386 chief registrars.

They in turn will instruct and give the oath to their precinct assistants.

Chairman Motley stressed today the fact that volunteer registration workers will not be expected to give a whole day of their time, but will be recruited on a part-time basis.

CMTC Camps to Be Suspended in 1941

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (INS)

—The Citizens Military Training camps, which are attended by about 35,000 young men each year, will be suspended during next summer, the War Department announced today.

The camp sites will be used for the training of conscripts, the department said. Formerly the CMTC four-year training period has furnished from 700 to 400 reserve officers a year.

Seekonk Wife Slain, Mate Tries Suicide

SEEKONK, Sept. 27—A 42-year-old wife and mother was shot to death here today and her husband, a Navy veteran, was in critical condition with wrists and throat gashed and a gunshot wound in his side.

Police said the husband told them:

"I killed my wife because I was jealous of her."

The slain woman, Mrs. Mary Gibson, was the second wife of the Navy man, John Gibson, 66, according to police.

The shooting and alleged suicide attempt took place in the Gibson home in Lodge rd. here.

The wife's death was officially ruled a murder by Medical Examiner Jess Betterdahl.

State Police Corp. John W. Collins reported Gibson victim of attempted suicide.

A shotgun and a razor were the weapons used, according to police. Gibson was taken to Sturdy Memorial Hospital, Attleboro.

The dead wife was the mother of four children, three by a previous marriage, police said. Gibson, a former navy cook, was retired after 30 years service, according to investigators.

Police were called to the scene by Mrs. Evelyn Leonard, a neighbor.

She said she went to the Gibson house to buy vegetables but found the door closed. She said the husband shouted:

"I have killed my wife."

State Detective Albert Brouillard was put in charge of the investigation. He summoned Dr. Alan R. T. Moritz of the Harvard Medical School, state police pathologist.

Hedy Lamarr Wins Divorce From Markey

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27 (AP)—Hedy Lamarr won a divorce from Gene Markey, film writer, today after testifying during their 14 months of married life only four times did they have a "nice quiet evening at home alone."

The dark-eyed Miss Lamarr testified Markey would not tell her "the little things that went on in his life when he was away from home." When he was with her, she said, is guests usually were around.

Markey, formerly married to Joan Bennett, made no answer to Miss Lamarr's charges of cruelty. They were married at Ensenada, Mexico, March 4, 1939.

Miss Lamarr formerly was married to Fritz Mandl, wealthy Austrian.

Draft Head Picked, But F. D. Won't Tell

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (AP)—President Roosevelt has selected a man to head the draft, but he told newsmen today he could not announce the name because it was uncertain whether the man could accept.

STASSEN RAPS F.D. ON PREPAREDNESS

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 27 (INS)—Governor Harold E. Stassen, of Minnesota, keynoter, moved the Republican state convention to enthusiasm today when he scored the Roosevelt Administration for allowing a "shocking lack of preparedness" when Republican members of Congress were trying to have this country arm. He said the New Deal was more interested in bailing a political machine.

Gov. William H. Vanderbilt was nominated for a second term. Lieut-Gov. James O. McManus was nominated for the United States Senate. Edward P. Scallon, member of the legislature from Providence, was nominated for Lieutenant Governor along with other present state G. O. P. officers and two Congressmen.

Gov. Stassen aroused the 140 delegates and spectators in Elks Auditorium to a high pitch of enthusiasm as he flayed the Roosevelt Administration for unpreparedness and for attempting to adjourn Congress when Republican Congressmen were revealing a state of unpreparedness and demanding preparedness activity.

"The Administration in Washington," he said, "was more interested in building a political machine and keeping itself in power than building a defense for America. We must have an America strong enough to guard against anything from within or without. We have been shockingly lacking in national preparedness. The present Administration in Washington has failed, we must make America strong, keep America free and to do this there must be a change in the White House."

Permanent Chairman Harold A. Andrews urged the re-election of Vanderbilt and the election of Wendell Wilkie as President "to keep our free form of Government."

F. D. Awards Gold Star To Admiral Byrd

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (AP)—President Roosevelt, awarding a gold star to be attached to the distinguished service medal already held by Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, said today Byrd's leadership of the United States Antarctic service "has been a credit to the government of the United States."

Strip-Rob Suspect Held In $10,000

SALEM, Sept. 27—Pleading guilty today in district court to armed robbery, Henry St. Arnault, 22, of Park st., alleged strip bandit, was held in $10,000 for the grand jury by Judge George B. Sears.

Sergeant Thomas Gilligan told the court that St. Arnault, a painter, was arrested yesterday on a description by his alleged victim, attractive 23-year-old Betty Dickinson of Wenham, and that he was still in possession of her beach wagon.

According to the sergeant, the girl said she had been driving the beach wagon last Saturday in Highland ave., Salem, opposite the high school, stopped to give a lift to St. Arnault, who was thumbing a ride.

In a wooded section near Barcelona ave., St. Arnault pressed a large bread knife into her side, the sergeant said, forced her to drive into a lonely road, ordered her out of the beach wagon and then threatening her still with the knife, forced her to strip off all her clothing.

With some of her undergarments he bound and gagged her, according to the charges, and made away in the beach wagon with her purse, containing about $5, and her wrist watch.

Succeeding in freeing herself, the unclad girl wandered around in the poison-ivy infested woods for half an hour before coming out at the home of a woman who gave her a dress and notified police.

Mrs. F. D. Sees No War Peril In Defense

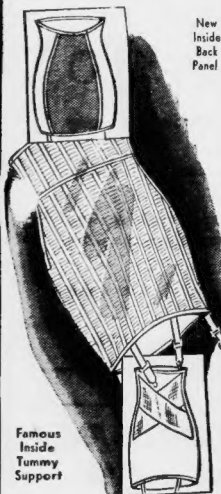

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt believes "anyone who is not sure now that the United States is worth fighting for is never going to be willing to fight for the United States."

The First Lady told the Woman's National Democratic Club last night citizens of this country have taken their privilege for granted too long.

"You pay for everything in one way or another that you get in this world," she said. "We are beginning to pay for what we believe in—and pay not just in money, but in ways in which we can give and serve as citizens."

"I get a little weary hearing," she said, "that if we talk about preparedness we are war-mongering."

JOB SALE DATA GOES TO CREGG

Transcripts of testimony taken during the state civil service commission's investigation into alleged selling of police and fire department jobs in Lawrence were turned over to Dist. Atty. Hugh A. Cregg of Essex county today.

With this evidence the commission, headed by Chairman William H. Bixby, called on Cregg to designate for criminal investigation and prosecution "a man unconnected with Lawrence affairs and free from politics."

LAWYER UNDER FIRE
Pointing out that it had no authority to promise immunity, the commission announced further that it had urged Cregg to "do everything in his power" to protect those who have testified.

Informed sources at the State House say that the commission has received affidavits from 30 to 40 persons who claim to have paid sums ranging from $200 to $1500 for appointments and promotions. One prominent Lawrence city official whose bank accounts have been checked is expected to be indicted and a lawyer, reputedly the "bagman" in alleged job-sales, is now under fire.

MAY BE DISBARRED
Atty. John Daly of Boston and Cambridge, appointed by the Supreme Judicial Court to investigate the lawyer is expected to file for disbarment proceedings against the man shortly.

Officials indicated that probably six or more persons could be indicted by the Essex County Grand Jury from evidence gathered in the civil service commission's investigation.

Who Is This Guy Saltonstall? Such Is Fame

Mayoral secretaries, like hotel clerks, are hard to surprise.

But William L. Crawford of Mayor Tobin's office staff got a big kick today when a telegraph company messenger boy, with a package addressed "Gov. Leverett Saltonstall," inquired seriously:

"Who is this guy Saltonstall and where does he work in City Hall?"

Crawford directed the boy to the State House, with smiling courtesy. The package contained a copy of an elaborate yearbook published by the Apartment House Owners' Ass'n.

A similar copy, addressed to Mayor Tobin, had been delivered by the same boy without difficulty or confusion.

3 WIVES, HUSBAND CUT TIES

Mental cruelty was cited for the first time in five years by Suffolk Probate Court today when Mrs. Elsie M. Lapham of Westminster st., Hyde Park, won an uncontested divorce from George F. Lapham.

Judge Mahoney granted the divorce along with one annulment and two other divorces on charges of desertion and cruel and abusive treatment.

Mrs. Lapham testified her mental suffering began in September, 1938, after six years of marriage, when her husband started taking another woman out two and three times a week.

When she protested he said he no longer loved her, Mrs. Lapham testified.

Dr. Emma Quay, testifying for Mrs. Lapham, said that between September, 1938, and April, 1939, when Lapham finally left her, he wife lost 22 pounds and was in poor health.

Although Lapham did not contest, he asked custody of a son, Stanley, 5, for two months during the summer. Judge Mahoney denied his request, saying:

"It is too bad Lapham didn't have some of this thoughtfulness for his wife."

Lapham was ordered to pay $8 a week to his wife and will be permitted to see his son on Saturday between 1 and 5 p. m.

Without reason, her husband, Arthur M. Annis, left their home, it was testified by Mrs. Eva Annis of Ransom rd., Brighton, in winning an uncontested divorce and custody of a child, Natalie, 13.

James Henry Ryan of Brighton st., Charlestown, was granted an annulment from his 1918 war bride, Marie Ryan, whom he wed on the eve of sailing for France, after he testified she was married at the time and had never had a divorce.

Ryan said she represented herself as a widow with two children. Actually, he said, her husband lived in Somerville.

Why shop for Fall Clothes?

"Don't get me wrong. I'm getting a new suit this week, just like you. Only this time I'm not walking my legs down to the ankles, looking around. Why should I—when it's such a cinch to get what I want, at Bond's! Now I'm not easy to fit. But Bond's has never failed to show me at least a dozen suits built as though they were made for me. If you like firm worsteds, you've New England's best to pick from. If you go for tweeds or shetlands, you'll see away-from-the-ordinary weaves that'll make you think you're in a custom shop. Rochester-styled and tailored, too—and you know that's about tops for quality. Just take your time, then have 'em trot up that factory-trained fitting expert to add the finishing touches—and you'll be wearing clothes that'll have folks asking 'who is your tailor?' After all, more men wear Bond Clothes than any other clothes in America. There must be a reason. So why run all over town?"

JAPS STILL HOPE TO WOO U. S.

TOKYO, Sept. 27 (AP)—Japan's new alliance with Germany and Italy does not mean Japan is going to enter the European war, foreign office spokesman Yachiro Suma said today.

He said Japan had not abandoned hope of composing her differences with the United States.

Suma declined to make any comment on the fifth article of the pact which says it has no bearing on existing commitments of the signatories with the Soviet Union.

"We are not going to participate in the European war. We are not going to attack any country," Suma said, adding the purpose of the pact was to solidify the community of interests of the signatories.

The signing of the pact came at a time when Japanese sources asserted the United States, having embargoed scrap metal shipments to Japan, definitely had allied herself with Britain and China.

A clash between Japan and the United States "now seems inevitable," said the influential newspaper Asahi.

Suma said such words as "attacked" and others used in the summary were more closely defined in the actual text of the treaty, which might be published in the future.

Asked directly whether the treaty would be applied to Soviet Russia if she attacked any contracting party, Suma replied:

"The treaty neither is delimited to any one country nor does it except any one country."

He said the article regarding the Soviet Union "is clear as it stands."

Italians See Pact

Haling U. S. Move

ROME, Sept. 27 (AP)—Fascist authorities indicated plainly today the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo pact meant the three totalitarian powers were united in a common front against any attempt of the United States to interfere with them in any territory they consider their "living space."

Foreign observers were quick to express the belief Spain would be brought into the alliance later since she already is in the anti-comintern pact with the three powers which signed today's treaty.

Spain Warning to U. S.

To Stop Aiding Britain

MADRID, Spain, Sept. 27 (AP)—Spain appeared today to be moving closer to siding her axis with the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo axis as the Spanish press voiced a chorus of rejoicing at the success of Germany and Italy in getting Japan to join in an alliance.

The press unanimously took the view the possibility of United States aid to Britain henceforth must diminish because of American preoccupation with affairs in the Pacific.

Pact No Surprise To Britains

LONDON, Sept. 27 (AP)—A British Foreign Office spokesman confined himself to this comment on the German-Italian-Japanese pact signed today in Berlin:

"I don't think this will come as a surprise to you any more than to us."

He indicated further comment might be made later.

Japs, Axis Sign; U. S. Is Warned

United States entry into the European conflict.—Editor's note.

Germany and Italy agreed that Japan would be recognized by them as the leader in the creation of a new order in Asia. Japan, in turn, recognized Italy and Germany as the leaders in the creation of a new order in Europe.

WITH MILITARY POMP

The new treaty was announced in one of the most pretentious ceremonies of the Nazi regime.

Foreign diplomats, the foreign and German press and other dignitaries gathered in the great reception hall in Hitler's chancellery while the general outline of the treaty was read in several languages over a world-wide radio hook-up designed to let the whole world know what was afoot.

The scene of the pact signing was one already familiar to foreign correspondents—the big gilded "Hall of Ambassadors" in the new chancellery. Two huge crystal candelabra cast a festive light on the state ceremonies.

At the farther end of the hall, next to the door to offices of the cabinet and Hitler, stood a long table with microphones and three leather armchairs—the center one for German Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop, the one to his right for Italian Foreign Minister Ciano and the one to his left for Saburo Kurusu, Japanese ambassador to Germany.

RIBBENTROP'S WARNING

Be-medaled and uniformed military and diplomatic representatives ranked back of the chairs formed an impressive background for signature of the far-reaching agreement.

Signatories of the pact were von Ribbentrop, Count Ciano and Ambassador Kurusu.

Von Ribbentrop, addressing the assembled diplomats and journalists following the reading of the pact, warned:

"Any nation which intends to mix in the joint affairs of the contractors (of the new agreement) will have to meet the compact power of the three united nations of 250,000,000 people."

Text of von Ribbentrop's speech on Page 13.

Ciano arrived by plane from Munich for the ceremony of signature. Fog held up his plane and delayed the ceremony an hour.

Von Ribbentrop described the pact as an "alliance of the three most powerful powers in the world."

"AGAINST WARMONGERS"

He said it was directed against "those warmongers in the world who are intending to continue and to spread this war."

The German foreign minister said specifically of Soviet Russia:

"The three powers have established that neither the existing relations with Russia nor the relations with Russia which are to be established are to be touched in any way."

Under the treaty, Japan specifically agreed to leave European affairs in the hands of Germany and Italy, but, equally important—and perhaps even more so in view of one fact that a greater portion of the British and French colonial possessions are in the Far East—the axis powers agreed to recognize Japan's leadership in creating a "new order" in Asia.

The pact was to be effective immediately against all comers.

Von Ribbentrop said, however, the intention of the signatory powers was to "seek peace and not war."

RAF FIGHTS 500 NAZI RAIDERS

morning. On one occasion, three yellow-nosed Messerschmitts were shot down in the space of one mile. One of these Nazis had been machine-gunning a lookout post on a south coast beach.

South London was hard hit. Twenty bombs fell at one spot, killing at least four and injuring others. One bomb struck full on the entrance to a factory shelter where 1000 girls were huddled. Some fatalities occurred but, miraculously, most were uninjured. Office workers in central London watched a furious aerial duel in which about 20 German bombers escorted by fighters were driven off hotly pursued by R. A. F. fighters.

SNARED IN AIR TRAP

Fifteen German bombers strongly escorted by fighters crossed the Kent coast and flew into an R. A. F. trap this afternoon. A fierce air combat followed and the Germans retreated across the channel. Several were believed shot down.

Three air raid alarms sounded in the city while defenders of the capital sent up a terrific barrage of ground fire and scores of British fighters leaped on the attacking raiders.

The third alarm of the day in London—the city's 131st since the war began—sounded as anti-aircraft guns opened up in the northern section of the city.

RAF Blasts Away At German Bases

LONDON, Sept. 27 (INS)—Bombers of the Royal Air Force carried out heavy attacks last night and early this morning against channel ports along the French coast, German shipping, the Kiel canal and German internal waterways an official announcement said today.

Wave upon wave of British planes dived across the English Channel and then plunged down on their targets through low-hanging rain clouds.

A red glare illuminated mists over the channel as scores of fires were started along the continental coastline by tons of explosives dropped by the British raiders.

Spitfire Plant Claimed Hit

BERLIN, Sept. 27 (AP)—Britain's Spitfire assembly plant at Woolson, near Southampton—the place where she fits together some of her staunchest defense planes—was squarely hit in yesterday's German air-rafting of England, the high command reported today.

"Tremendous destruction" was caused by hits on hangars and factory buildings, said the communique.

Famous British Theater Ruined

LIVERPOOL, England, Sept. 27 (AP)—Some docks and warehouses are burning in Liverpool today after heavy bombing by German planes last night. A famous theater, among the oldest in England, was destroyed by an incendiary bomb.

Ribbentrop Text Read At Signing

EVENING AMERICAN, FRIDAY, SEPT. 27, 1940

BERLIN, Sept. 27 (AP.)—Via Radio following is the text of Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop's statement at the signing of the Japanese-German-Italian pact today as broadcast by the Berlin radio:

It is a highly important occasion which has brought us together here. The German, Italian and Japanese governments have resolved to conclude a pact which is of greatest importance for the three contracting countries as well as for future political development in world.

The German people had a right like all other big nations to have a share in the good things of this earth and to have them for their own administration, especially as far as they have been its former property.

"RIGHT TO EXIST"
This endeavor of the German people for free work in their own sphere of life was no interference with foreign spheres of interests. The National Socialist (Nazi) government was resolved to secure the right to exist for the German people in its sphere under all circumstances.

In this endeavor, it found itself on the same lines with other nations. Organized warlike forces of Jewish capitalists and democrats succeeded in 1939 in plunging Europe into a new war which was not desired by Germany.

But this war is not preventing revision of European conditions. On the contrary, it has accelerated it. The three-power pact which I signed just now by order of the Fuehrer is a solemn proclamation of union of Germany, Italy and Japan as one block which to an extreme degree represents our joint interests.

SECURES NEW ORDER
Its task is to secure a new order of parts of Europe which are at war under the leadership of Germany and Italy as well as a new order in Greater East Asia under Japanese leadership. Its foundation is not only friendship but, above all, a community of interests of three peoples.

The pact is not directed against any other people, but exclusively against war mongers and irresponsible elements in the world who are working for prolongation of expansion of war. The pact is a military alliance between three of the most powerful states on earth.

It shall strive to bring about new, just order in the European sphere as well as in Greater East Asia. But it shall particularly help in giving to the world peace as quickly as possible.

Therefore, any state which accepts this bloc with a wish to contribute its share to restoring peaceful relations between peoples, will be sincerely and thankfully welcomed and invited to cooperate in a political and economic new order.

But any state which should have any intention to interfere with the final stage of the solving of this problem in Europe or East Asia and to attack one of the states of the three-power pact will encounter the whole massed energy of three peoples of more than two hundred fifty millions.

NAZI FOE OFF TO U. S.

FD PARRIES QUERIES ON JAP PACT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (INS)—Conclusion of the German-Italian-Japanese military alliance today found Washington officially indifferent, but underneath this diplomatic callousness appeared to be grave concern.

President Roosevelt at his press conference, had little comment. At the State Department the official view was that the signing of the pact merely formalized what already existed. But Congress frankly looked upon the tri-partite agreement with alarm.

Mr. Roosevelt avoided all questions put to him by reporters. Asked if conclusion of the tri-partite agreement was unexpected, he replied, well, yes and no. Asked if he might extend the scrap iron embargo invoked against Japan yesterday, to include petroleum, he advised his interrogator to ask the State Department.

Immediately after the press conference the White House announced that the President had summoned for a conference Secretary of War Timson, Secretary of Navy Knox, Admiral Stark, chief of naval operations Gen. Marshall, army chief of staff William S. Knudsen, production chief for the national defense council Assistant Secretary of War Patterson and Undersecretary of Navy Forrestal.

Roosevelt also had a conference scheduled with Lord Lothian, the British ambassador, Sir Walter Leighton, British economist, and Neville Butler, counselor to the British embassy in Washington.

Sen. Austin (R.) of Vermont, declared that "this nation had never realized the portentousness of events as much as we do this morning."

"We are just a little island in the midst of revolution," Austin said.

Sen. Connally (D.) of Tex., member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee declared that "such a combination threatens the security and peace of the world."

Sen. Nye (R. of N. D., also a member of the Foreign Relations Committee said, "our foreign policy has finally resulted in driving Japan into the arms of the last people in whom we wanted them entertained."

46 Back Ashore 8 Days Adrift

LONDON, Sept. 27 (AP)—Back in England today are 46 persons—including 19 shivering schoolboys—who spent eight days of peril and hardship in a storm-battered lifeboat after the City of Benares went to the bottom 600 miles out in the Atlantic.

Rescued through the combined work of two British fishing boats and a warship, the survivors were landed at a British port late last night.

"We lost all count of time after the first two or three days," said Mary Cornish, 21-year-old school teacher-escort and only woman in the lifeboat.

"But the children were admirable. They passed the time singing and telling stories. They were quite cheerful and to help them along we had a serial—my own version of Bulldog Drummond. Never at any time did the boys complain."

Two hundred and forty-eight of those aboard the Canada-bound City of Benares, 77 of them evacuee children, still are missing and probably are dead. The vessel went down Sept. 17. The British claim she was torpedoed.

New Secret Devices to Balk Nazis?

LONDON, Sept. 27 (AP)—New secret devices with which to combat night raiders were reported today in use in the London area which last night had one of the lightest night raids in the three weeks since the air "blitz" began.

The devices were said to have been developed by British scientists, and observers declared there was a chance that, used together, two of the devices might make right bombing as hazardous as raiding by day.

There was no immediate indication whether the new weapons were responsible for the softening of the German blows on the capital, and there were no intimations of their nature.

In a gradual lifting of the curtain of censorship, however, British correspondents were permitted to comment upon these new air-raid noises heard by Londoners in the last few nights.

1—A heavy single explosion disintegrating into staccato cracks high in the heavens.

2—A flat roar which seems to strike a ceiling several miles up and bump its way clamorously along the top of the sky.

3—A muffled rattling like a "carpet slipper machine-gun."

"These queer noises to which Londoners have listened with increasing interest and speculation are in fact caused by new types of weapons, or by well tried weapons adapted to new uses," said one observer.

He mentioned "another new weapon which makes very little noise except an odd rustle like the froufrou of a taffeta gown."

Lord Beaverbrook, minister for aircraft production, called on the government director of one British aircraft factory, meanwhile, to "give us more Defiants."

Defiants, two-seater planes with a revolving gun turret, are the only fighters which can fire in all directions.

More Japs Pour Into Indo-China

HAIPHONG, French Indo-China, Sept. 27 (AP)—More Japanese troops with full equipment and supplies for a long stay poured into Haiphong in a continuing stream this morning and six Japanese planes roared low over Hanoi, drawing no anti-aircraft fire but evoking a strong French protest.

The soldiers disembarking at this port today were the follow-up for 2000 Japanese admitted yesterday under a French-Japanese agreement in which Japan has gained new bases for operations against the Chinese forces of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

The French Colonial Administration ordered an immediate protest to Tokyo as a result of the low-altitude flight of the warplanes over Hanoi, Indo-China's capital.

Meanwhile, high quarters said Maj.-Gen. siesaku Nishihara, head of the Japanese mission in the troubled negotiations for Japanese entry, had left French colonial waters with Japanese naval units last night. Departure of the warships left only Japanese army transports.

A Reuters (British) news agency dispatch from Chungking to London today said Chinese authorities had declared martial law along the Indo-China border. Persons passing the border are being rigidly searched, the dispatch said.—Editor's Note.

G.O.P., Dems Ready For State Parleys

Resolutions committees of both Democratic and Republican state organizations met this afternoon in Springfield and Boston, respectively, to hear suggestions for party platforms to be voted at the annual conventions tomorrow.

Some 5000 delegates to the Democratic convention will meet in the municipal auditorium at Springfield while 3000 members of the G. O. P. convene at Symphony Hall here.

In addition to drawing up their party platform, the conventions will each select the slate of 17 who will serve as presidential electors in November.

Many of the Democrats were already in Springfield and more were due later in the day on the "Democratic Victory Special" train leaving the South Station and stopping in Worcester.

The Democratic resolutions committee held its meeting at Hotel Kimball, Springfield. The Republicans heard their partisans' suggestions for platform planks at the Parker House.

Both parties will have banquets this evening. The Republican Club of Massachusetts is playing host at Hotel Bradford.

Democrats will dine in the Springfield auditorium as guests of the Democratic Women's Luncheon Club of Western Massachusetts and the Democratic city committee of Springfield.

Congressman Joseph W. Martin, chairman of the Republican national committee, will be permanent chairman of the Republican convention and Mayor Roger Lowell Putnam of Springfield will wield the Democratic gavel.

Paul V. McNutt, Federal Social Security administrator, and Edward J. Flynn, Democratic national committee chairman, are among the big names to head the Democrats' list of orators. McNutt is to speak at the pre-convention dinner while Flynn is due in Springfield tomorrow.

Congressman Martin, Senator Lodge, Governor Saltonstall and Henry Parkman, seeking Senator Walsh's seat, are among the Republican orators.

TRAWLER AGROUND

The Coast Guard patrol boat Faunce sped today to the assistance of the Gloucester trawler Mary C., which ran aground off Long Point, near Provincetown. The fishing boat was reported to be in no immediate danger.

Third Term Peril Cited By Willkie

ABOARD WILLKIE TRAIN EN ROUTE TO MADISON, Wis., Sept. 27 (AP)—Wendell L. Willkie, crossing northern Iowa after his western campaign tour, said today that if "there ever was a time when we should abide by the two-term tradition, it is now when the democratic way of life is being tested."

"There is a very serious question whether the democratic way of life can survive," the Republican presidential nominee told a cheering train-side crowd at Ft. Dodge, Ia.

"If the American people have arrived at such a state as to elect 'one indispensable man,' this way of life may pass."

POINTS TO DANGER

"All men who get great power seek to retain it. I know that the President has no notion or motive of becoming a dictator, but the President, like all men with great power, gets surrounded by a group of men who are more ambitious to retain that power."

"I notice on the left here a few boys who are booing," Willkie said. "I have challenged the President to debate the issues. I have asked many questions of the Administration, but the most intellectual answer I have received is a boo or a catcall."

Willkie's train travelled across Iowa's broad corn fields from Omaha, where he recommended a farm program calling for expanded markets and improvement of present federal agricultural projects.

The Republican presidential nominee also promised that, if elected, he would invite representatives of farm, factory, labor and consumer to the White House to "tackle the job," at long last, of ending economic stagnation and of preventing a common disaster.

Willkie Speaks In Mass. Oct. 10

SALEM, Sept. 27—Speeches will be made Thursday afternoon, Oct. 10, by Wendell Willkie, Republican presidential nominee, in Lynn, Peabody and Salem, President William J. Macinnis of the Essex Republican Club announced today.

SMITH PLEADS FOR WILLKIE

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (INS)—Alfred E. Smith, the wearer of the brown derby who was governor of New York State four times and the Democratic presidential nominee in 1928, started beating the political drums today for Wendell Willkie.

"The third term would destroy the Democratic party," Smith stated in a message to a recently formed Democrats-for-Willkie Club in Brooklyn.

"I know it requires courage and fortitude for you to stand out against the colossus of the New Deal. We Democrats who believe in the principles of Jefferson, Cleveland and Wilson know that Wendell L. Willkie typifies these fundamentals and that the whole future of our American system of democracy is in danger."

Gallagher Lauds Carr In Vote Tilt

As the Boston municipal election commission prepared to hold a hearing today to determine validity of signatures on a petition for a recount of Boston primary returns in the contest for Democratic nomination for lieutenant-governor, former State Sen. Owen A. Gallagher, the winning candidate, issued a statement complimenting his opponent, Mayor John C. Carr of Medford.

Gallagher said he wished to make clear that, though he charges many of the signatures on the recount petition are obviously invalid, he "does not and would not charge anyone with a deliberate fraud."

'FINE OPPONENT'

The Gallagher statement, in full, was as follows:

"I wish to make my position clear with respect to the recount of votes in the primary contest for Lieutenant Governor.

"Mayor Carr is a fine type of political opponent, who waged an excellent fight. He and my warm personal friend, Frederick V. McMenimen, who was his campaign manager, did not request or instigate the recount.

"Mayor Carr and Owen A. Gallagher engaged in a vigorous, clean contest which pleased and satisfied true Democrats throughout the Commonwealth.

"Even before the primaries I stated that I was more interested in party harmony than in personal success and that I would gladly support my honorable opponent if that was the verdict of the people. Mayor Carr, in true sportsmanlike fashion, tendered me his congratulations and if the papers are correct stated that he had no intention of asking for a recount.

'WISE DECISION'

"That appeared to me to be a wise decision, because the Democratic state convention is next Saturday at Springfield and we cannot delay our statewide organization by further contests which might be misinterpreted.

"In spite of Mayor Carr's public statement, certain very well-intentioned and zealous supporters have petitions for a recount in Boston, Fall River and Lowell. I have protested certain signatures because they are obviously invalid.

"I do not and would not charge anyone with a deliberate fraud, and I have no objection to a recount, although it would be very untimely, provided it is secured in a proper lawful way.

"I want to get out on the line for my friends, Paul A. Dever, David I. Walsh and the whole Democratic ticket as soon as possible."

New Dog Tax Deferred

Boston dog owners, long harassed by the threat that their pets might be taxed by the city as valuable personal property, began breathing easier today.

Good news to them was announcement that the last 1940 tax bills were in the mail—with no dog assessments yet included.

City Assessor, John C. L. Dowling, however, still had an ace in the hole. It was he, incidentally, who originally sponsored taxing dogs and who compelled dog owners to answer a questionnaire concerning pedigree and breed and value of their animals.

"We're still studying the dog tax problem," Dowling said today. "And under the law we can still impose a 1940 tax Dec. 1. The matter isn't settled yet."

GOODWIN IN PLEA TO CUT DOWN DRIVING SPEED

Do as Providence and Worcester are doing—restrict the speedsters! So police chiefs of Massachusetts today were urged by State Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin, who emphasized that autumn with wet streets and long nights meant increased auto deaths in the state.

"The experience in Providence, Worcester and other cities in the country, where a 25-mile limit in congested areas has been strictly enforced, indicates clearly that if you want to stop deaths, this example must be followed," Goodwin stated.

LAXITY AT POLLS CHARGED

In a stormy hearing before the municipal election commission, counsel for a defeated candidate charged today that "shamefully lax" conditions existed in the Precinct 14, Ward 3, voting place in Endicott st., North End, during final hours of voting in the primaries Sept. 17.

Electric lights went out and the balloting room was in darkness until all lamps could be obtained and put in service, according to the city solicitor, Atty. William F. A. Graham.

BALLOTS UNGUARDED

Three bundles of ballots, totaling 174, were unguarded on a table while the blackout continued, Graham said.

He charged further that the ballot box, when brought from the vaults today for a recount, was tampered and inadequately sealed.

Atty. Graham represented Joseph F. X. Doherty, loser by 52 votes in a three-cornered contest for the Democratic nomination for Ward 3 state representative.

PRESS EXCLUDED

Over Atty. Graham's vehement protest, members of the press were excluded from the hearing.

Later, Graham repeated his charges outside the election commission office, asserted he had been denied a fair hearing and announced he was going to ask Mayor Tobin to remove Election Commission Chairman William A. Motley.

During the argument in and out of the commission's office, a stalwart police officer in uniform sat patiently on the disputed ballot box waiting for the delayed recount.

Graham's charges were denied vigorously and at length by Atty. Salvatore E. Aloisi representing Edmund E. Capidapo, one of the two winning candidates.

F. D. to See Maryland Defenses on Monday

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (AP)—President Roosevelt announced today he would make an inspection Monday of defense units in Maryland, including the army's proving ground at Aberdeen, the chemical warfare plant near Aberdeen, the Martin bombing plane factory in the northeast section of Baltimore, and Camp Meade, Md. He will leave tomorrow evening, after dedicating the terminal building of the new Washington airport, and travel by boat down the Potomac and up Chesapeake bay.

Record-American Parade Picture Wins A. L. Honor

From the thousands of pictures taken of Tuesday's parade, a photograph appearing in the Boston Hearst papers was the official choice of the American Legion today as being most typical of its parade and the city in which it was staged.

Edward McGrail, national publicity director of the Legion, singled out the picture of Dorchester County Council of Maryland passing with massed colors before City Hall as most suited for publication in the 300 organs of the American Legion.

Photographer Harvey Glew of the Boston Record-American staff made the picture.

His reasons, he said, were several. It represents the devotion to the flag for which the Legion stands. It shows in the foreground the crippled children who are the concern of the Legionnaires and in the background, beyond the pillars of the City Hall gates, the Gold Star mothers whom they delight to honor.

The solid masonry of King's Chapel, an ancient Boston landmark, gives local color to the scene. Beside the famous church is the equally noted burial ground.

The picture was air-mailed to Indianapolis last night and cuts and mats were hurriedly made of it to be distributed to the Legion's various publications.

LAST OF LEGION THROG HEADS HOME FROM HUB

By JAMES F. McENANEY

They came, they saw, they conquered. Thus the American Legion convention was a matter of past history today, and said old Boston once again returned to normalcy. The last of the Legionnaires today boarded special trains at South station, bound for all sections of the United States carrying with them pleasant thoughts and memories of Boston.

Likewise the women of the Legion Auxiliary had cleaned up all their 1940 convention business in Boston and were scattering to their homes in all sections of the American scene.

Newly-elected National Commander Milo J. Warner, with members of his family were scheduled to leave for Toledo late today.

LEAVES FOR DETROIT

With his wife and six children, past National Commander Raymond J. Kelly, after an hour conference with his successor in the Hotel Stadler, left for Detroit, Mich., where he will resume his law practice.

"I will have to do a lot of hustling when I get back home," said Kelly.

"I have been away from my law practice for over a year and it will be like starting over again, renewing my acquaintances with former clients."

As for Commander-elect Warner, a hard task lies ahead of him during the next 12 months.

He will have a travelling schedule of nearly 100,000 miles in connection with his official duties and annual visits to each state department during his term of office.

The first official act of the new Legion chief will be sometime next week, when he will pay a formal call upon the President of the United States, at the White House.

Each year following a Legion convention it is the custom of the newly-elected commander to pay this respects to the President.

CURE PROPAGANDA

Demands for national legislation which will curb subversive activities and propaganda is one of the first duties of Warner.

Resolutions on this matter which were adopted by the convention were the most far-reaching in the Legion's 22 year history.

The defense program relating to the war abroad and the crisis at home will also be given the major part of the commander's time during the next few months.

In the meantime, the wife of the new commander admitted she is already reconciled to the fact she will be in all intents and purposes — a widow for the next 12 months.

With her husband traveling about the country most of the time in connection with his duties, Mrs. Warner said she would spend most of the time at home.

BIGGEST SALE ON AT KANE'S

The greatest sale in its long history started today at Kane's, one of New England's outstanding furniture houses.

After months of planning officials of Kane's also announced special birthday gifts to customers.

With furniture purchases of $39 or more, Kane's will present a 11-piece Pepperell set, of a quilt wool Beaton blanket, it was said.

Declaring this year's anniversary celebration to be more an ordinary sale, the furniture company said it has obtained cooperation of outstanding manufacturers, among them Simmons, Knickerbocker, Pheasant, Emerson, Heaton, Pepperell, Mohawk, Alexander, and Kirby and Corbin.

"Assembled on our floors are the most alluring and attractive display of styles that has ever been our privilege to offer to the buying public," said a company official.

"Among them are modern and ultra modern bedrooms, living rooms, and dinettes that are masterpieces of design, and really show what 1941 styles will be like."

Designs range from 18th century period pieces to the early American patterns, with all the charm and simplicity of the period faithfully reproduced.

We Are Sorry. . .

We are sorry so many thousands of our friends were unable to be accommodated at the "CAVALCADE OF STARS" Wednesday Evening.

Owing to the bad weather, we were forced to make a last minute change from National League Park to Boston Garden, the largest available indoor auditorium.

More than 20,000 people saw this thrilling 3-hour show sponsored by "SCHENLEY POST" 1190.

Police officials estimate that nearly as many more were turned away because not even standing room was left.

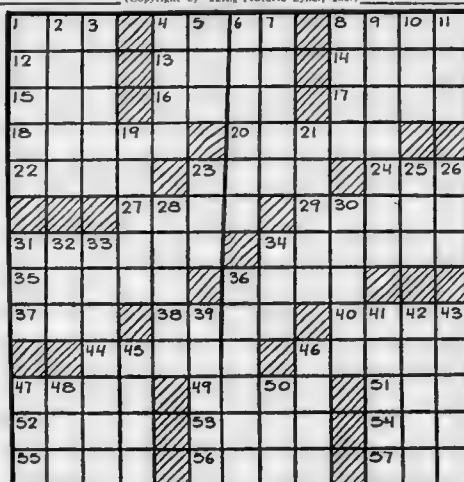

To you who were unable to obtain seats—we are sincerely sorry for this uncontrollable situation.

To you who saw this great Schenley show—we hope you had a grand evening.

Burglar Gets 10 Pocketbooks

An agile burglar climbed a piazza roof, removed a screen and made off with pocketbooks of 10 women guests at a birthday party in Howland st., Roxbury. It was disclosed today.

The party was at the home of Mrs. Joseph Tobias and was in honor of her son, Jason, Boston orchestra leader, recently married to Miss Charlotte White of Chestnut Hill. The young couple make their home in Commonwealth ave., Brighton.

As yet no definite estimate of the amount lost has been made. Among the victims were Miss Doris Rosenberg of Newton Center, Miss Jane Nathanson and Miss Estelle White, both of Chestnut Hill.

New Pastors Due In Salem, Billerica

Parishioners of Immaculate Conception Church in Salem and St. Andrews Church in North Billerica today planned receptions for new pastor of St. Andrew's Church since dinal O'Connell.

The Rev. Frederick F. Muldoon, pastor of St. Andrews Church since 1935, was transferred to the Salem Church, from Billerica, where he served as assistant after being ordained in 1908. He will be replaced at St. Andrew's by the Rev. Thomas C. Garahan, who has been chaplain of Jeanne d'Arc Academy in Blue Hill ave., Milton.

A BIG GIRL NOW

Overcomes Handicaps to Live

Valerie Beckwith Gives Brother Billy a Drink of Milk ...

... And Isn't Averse to Having a Sip or Two, Herself

'Be a Good Soldier, Pop'

Valerie ... Half Way Up a Door

2d Birthday Ahead for 16-Oz. Baby

The celebration of little Valerie Beckwith's second birthday on Sunday was held in a private party.

For 16 ounces, a good friend it was held at the home of the doctor who delivered her, and she was the only child of the family.

When the candles lit on the birthday cake, Mrs. Beckwith had some difficulty to get her baby to eat. But Valerie, who is now 2 years old, did not mind. Mrs. Beckwith, 35, of 1000 E. 10th St., Detroit, is the mother of the child.

BORN PREMATURELY

She was born on the 10th of the month. We never knew the premature birth of the child, when she knew that both she and Valerie might die. The child was put in an incubator and fed by a machine, though her temperature dropped to 86 degrees.

For months she was kept in the hospital, receiving medical treatment. Finally, they sent her home ... but the doctor assured Mrs. Beckwith that this was only a small chance she would live.

Mrs. Beckwith said she was even more than ready to see the child pass with her.

HEALTHIEST OF FAMILY

Now Valerie is the brightest and healthiest of the family. She has two sisters, Barbara E. Edman, 15, and a little brother, William, who is 12 months old.

The little child's never ill, and from meeting him, night after night, with Valerie.

There is only one thing in life that frightens her so far—that is fear of a big party.

She likes to climb onto a chair and look down at the floor. Whenever she passes the table where her picture is framed she cringes away and says, "Don't tell Valerie, is afraid of that high table where you are."

Then she runs away.

AMONG the patriotically conceived and carefully deliberated resolutions approved by the American Legion is a recommendation that every court in the land open its sessions with a ceremony of allegiance to the flag.

For months this newspaper has urged universal adoption of this reverent observance.

As a result, numerous judges have abandoned the ancient "Hear Ye, Hear Ye" formula and substituted such an impressively democratic convocation as:

"All stand, please, and face the flag of our country, which is the emblem of our constitutional rights and liberties."

But, generally, our Massachusetts judges have hesitated to make the change, even though it has proved wise and useful in other States.

The reason for this reluctance has never been satisfactorily explained.

Our judges are citizens who love and honor their country.

They respect their flag and require that other persons respect it, too.

They strive at all times to uphold fundamental laws set forth in the Constitution.

They show little regard for disloyalists and subversive movements.

Perhaps, therefore, they have been waiting for individuals and organizations to urge them to begin their judicial-hearings with words better suited to the nation's needs and welfare.

If so, our good judges need wait no more.

A major organization—one whose fourteen-hour patriotic pageant distinguished Boston and attracted the favorable attention of the whole country—has spoken.

MOST DANGEROUS of all sports is the picturesque rodeo. Its perils far surpass those of such conventional athletic activities as football, baseball, boxing and hockey.

In actual fact, according to Leo Cremer of Colorado Springs, Colo., who has produced top-notch rodeos for two decades, bronc riders make other sportsmen look like cautious fellows.

"When you're waiting for the three-minute bell in the thirteenth round of a prize fight," says Mr. Cremer, "you know your opponent may show mercy on your soul."

"But not so with a bronc. It knows no mercy, knows no let-up after it has worked itself into a killing frenzy, and when a cowboy comes out of the chute aboard the hurricane deck of a bucking 'critter' he can be sure he's got a rendezvous with the graveyard."

Has Mr. Cremer seen one of the nation's many automobile races, in which men are hurled over guard-rails, ground under wheels and crushed between colliding vehicles?

And will he not admit that such a spectacle is surpassed in blood-thirstiness only by the lion-eat-man festivals of Ancient Rome?

But, perhaps, Mr. Cremer, like thousands of other athletic enthusiasts, will not discuss automobile racing in the same breath with his beloved rodeo.

He, too, may say, "defying death in an automobile serves no useful purpose. Call it what you want. But don't call it a sport."

WOMEN VOTERS get no orchids from Professor Albert Morris, learned head of Boston University's Department of Sociology.

Professor Morris complains:

"Women have struggled and marched and pleaded and lobbied for the right to cast ballots since the days of Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton. Now they vote—but not according to their own ideas."

"They listen to their husbands' pronouncements regarding the merits of the candidates—and then vote the way the husbands vote, without thinking the case through for themselves."

The Professor is undoubtedly right, but he should go farther and point out that lack of thought around election time is sometimes as much a masculine ailment as a feminine one.

Too many persons of both sexes vote first and think later.

Equally as bad are the millions of the nation's voters who consistently refuse to exercise their franchise rights.

In 1936, out of 75,360,000 persons qualified to vote in the United States, only 45,646,817 did so, while in 1932, 30,343,473 persons out of a total of 70,160,000 qualified did not cast a ballot.

We can only hope the showing will be better and the people wiser this November.

For the President elected will be the President of ALL THE PEOPLE, both of those who vote and of those who do not vote.

On The Side

CONTENTION that a young fellow who has just married should not be asked to join the Army finds support in the Bible, Deuteronomy 24:5: "When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business; but he shall be free at home one year and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken."

THERE ARE 700 different kinds of games you can play with cards, but I really only like Pinochle and Poker. A game of "Rummy" is not so bad, but I can do without it. . . . A high school boy complains to the editors of Good Housekeeping Magazine about girls and asks that something be done about it. Says he in part: "High school girls hold one shoulder higher than the other. Their hair is too bushy. They do not take enough baths. Their voices are shrill. They wear dirty white shoes. They pile on lipstick" . . . Feature films as a rule carry this line: "The characters in this film are purely fictional. Any similarity between them and persons living is purely coincidental." Charlie Chaplin has asked that this be omitted from his film "The Dictator." He wants Hitler and Mussolini to know he means them.

VERA MILTON was once known as "The Dumbest Blonde on Broadway." A young gentleman of the press recently interviewed Vera and found she was "not dumb at all, but highly intelligent." There probably is no such thing as a dumb blonde. . . . Greta Garbo celebrated her 35th birthday by going to dinner at a health food cafe with Dr. Gaylord Hauser. Dr. Hauser's favorite drink is spinach juice. . . . Why do women named Patricia insist upon being called "Pat"? Why not call them Trixie, or Ricie, or Tricia or Toots or something feminine and let men named Patrick be the sole owners of the good, old masculine name of Pat?

"SO SOMEBODY says airline pilots are just 'plane chauffeurs' and it is a shame they are paid more than military pilots who are the real thing in pilots," writes an airline pilot. "An airline pilot flies 35 hours a month for his flight pay; an Army or Navy bomber pilot only four hours a month. The airline pilot meets instrument requirements in his flying that would make a Navy bomber pilot shudder and break into tears. If war comes you will see the airline pilots quickly drafted to pilot the big bombers and also to teach the Army and Navy fliers something about flying."

NOW I HAVE a fountain pen. I won it playing Bingo at the beach. Was trying to win a portable radio but couldn't make the grade. I figure it cost me $15 to win this fountain pen. I don't really need a fountain pen as I do all my writing on the typewriter. When I first started writing letters of love to my girl friend I wrote them on a typewriter. However, when she complained bitterly and intimated if things didn't improve she might marry her old sweetheart from Denver I penned my letters to her. She showed me one of these letters the other day. It started out "My Best Beloved." Not so good, maybe, but anyhow a better salutation than "Darling" don't you think? Well, as I was saying, I have a fountain pen. I'll let you know how it works. I'll bet you can hardly wait to hear from me about this.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—How it did rain in New York City! Foolishly, I left my umbrella at home, thinking I could always pick up a taxi. When the meeting of the United States Committee for the Care of the European Children came to an end, I stood hopefully in the doorway of the State Charities Aid building, and lo and behold, there were no taxis in sight. The Salvation Army came to my rescue, however, and a very kind gentleman walked down a block or two and brought one to the door.

The rest of the daytime hours were consumed in seeing people. There was a time in my life when my contacts were largely through the written word, but in the last few years, individual people have spoken the novels which, once upon a time, I read.

Some of their stories are as strange as any to be found in books. I mixed some people who were strictly businesslike and practical with those who lived in dream worlds of their own.

I DINED at home and then started uptown to attend my first Newspaper Guild meeting. I may not have any right to be a member of the Newspaper Guild, as has been suggested by one gentleman, but I was admitted, so I am at present apparently in good standing. The group as a whole, I hope, have a comfortable feeling that if they really want to, they can always get rid of me. In the meantime, I enjoyed a rather long drawn out evening.

A great many years of listening to speeches and conversations have made of me, I hope, an appreciative and understanding listener. Since we never end our education, I hope that this, like many other experiences, may be a valuable contribution to mine.

THEN WE flew down to Washington this morning and picked up Major Henry Hooker on our way to the airport. He had never flown before and I was glad that we had such a beautiful day and that he enjoyed it. Miss Thompson is becoming a veteran flyer, for our trip was quite bumpy in spots and she was completely unperturbed.

I have just seen the first copies of "The Moral Basis of Democracy," which the publishers have sent to me. It looks short enough not to frighten anyone by its length. The other little book, which I wrote this summer, is a child's Christmas story and is considerably shorter.

It will come out in November. I understand that several other people have followed in Mrs. Dwight Morrow's footsteps and have written Christmas stories for children, which also may have some meaning for older people.

Broadway Medley

FILMS AGAIN ATTRACT ESTELLE TAYLOR

Estelle Taylor

By Leonard Lyons

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Paul Small, the booking agent whose name has been linked with Estelle Taylor's, is negotiating a contract which will return Miss Taylor to the screen . . . "If you want my advice, Billy Rose told him, 'If I were you I'd book Estelle into a picture opposite Wallace Berry or Chester Conklin.' . . . 'Why those two?' asked Miss Taylor's suitor . . . 'Because, otherwise, if she ever plays a love scene with Clark Gable,' said Rose, 'you couldn't expect her to close her eyes and think he's you.'"

WARNING: Charles Boyer, who once starred in four plays written by Henry Bernstein, met the playwright Tuesday night and they reminisced of their days in Paris. Bernstein told of the new theater he had built in Paris—France's most modern theater, which was opened a few short weeks before his country fell . . . At that premiere the author met an official who had ridiculed Bernstein's constant warnings against the conditions which eventually brought defeat . . . With the Nazi legions pushing toward Paris, the official said to Bernstein: "The trouble with you pessimists is that you weren't pessimistic enough."

AGREEMENT: Mayor LaGuardia has been anxious for citizens residing in N. Y. to submit to finger printing, so that the aliens who must be finger printed under the new legislation should not be made to feel that the government is discriminating against them . . . The Mayor's campaign has met with its first success. The members of the Butchers' Union, citizens of the United States, all have agreed to be finger printed.

EXPENSE: George Jessel and Lois Andrew showed some visitors through their new house in Hollywood. "Having a house like this saves us a lot of money," said Jessel . . . The visitors demanded fuller explanation—because the house has no furniture in it . . . "Well, look at all our things we have stored in the closets," Jessel explained. "We needed a house, because it used to be so expensive paying for the excess baggage we'd have to lug with us on plane trips."

CHANGE: Robert Ardrey, who wrote the screen play for the new picture, "They Knew What They Wanted," has received a salary increase of $1500 a week. Despite this great affluence, Ardrey still lives in the manner he established when he first arrived unknown in Hollywood in a small bungalow with no servants. Wisely enough, he remembers too well the difficulties he had met, and so is saving all the money he can . . . When he came to the film colony, Ardrey spoke to Samson Raphaelson, who warned him how difficult it is to save money here. "As your income grows, your expenses increase," Raphaelson explained. "How much are your living expenses now?" . . . "$30 a week," Bob answered . . . "Well, you'll see," Raphaelson warned . . . One year later Ardrey's salary was raised to $1000. He again met Raphaelson who asked: "How much are your expenses now?" . . . "$40 a week," said Ardrey . . . "See?" gloated Raphaelson, "Didn't I tell you?"

TAXES: Last year the Group Theater produced Ardrey's "Thunder Rock," and it flopped in New York. Then it opened in London and became a sensation there. The British felt that this was a dramatization of all their faith, and epitomized the things for which they have been fighting. Ardrey's royalties began to mount . . . The author felt that the warmth and hope his play had brought to England were sufficient recompense to him, and that his impounded royalties therefore belonged to England. He wanted to donate these royalties to the British Red Cross. But his lawyers advised him that the donation would signify that he recognized his acceptance of these royalties—and that his income tax therefore would be enormous. And so those royalties now are mounting in London.

ENTERPRISE: Jimmy Gleason, the screen actor, is interested in politics in Hollywood. Mindful of the limited budget, Gleason is being very thorough about this job. He made a detailed list of all the available space of the studio, and sent the exact number of campaign posters to fill each bit of space.

LOIS ANDREW

"THE MAN WHO MADE the bookies weep," the hero of a recent motion picture quicker, would have been a pigmy alongside Bill "Bojangles" Robinson have his guess on the "numbers" been accurate . . . The veteran colored hooper would have put all the bookmakers in New England out of business had his "tip," aired from the Boston Garden platform to a huge audience Wednesday been a "hit" . . . But Bill missed—by 164.

IN A STARTLING BIT OF self-expression, the unique Mr. Robinson startled both his sponsors and audience at the "Calvalcade of Stars" exhibition by urging his listeners to play number 458 . . . It stimulated business all right, but if it's all the same to Mr. Robinson, the bookies will thank him in the future to keep his guesses to himself . . . True, he missed by a mile, and thousands and thousands of dollars dropped into the bookmakers' safe-deposit boxes when the number 294, instead of 458, came up.

AT ODDS OF 600 to 1 the pay-off on less than half the sum wagered in Boston on the Robinson hunch would have exceeded two and a half million dollars . . . Frantic attempts to "lay-off," or hedge, the number were being made all over Massachusetts while the program at Gan-sest, on which the winning number is computed, was being run . . . What made it a more trying matinee for the bookies was that hundreds of players together also hit on another number the series of digits shown in a newsphoto of a draft-drawing . . . Many of the customers played both, the Robinson number and the draft-board's number.

GETTING RICHER is a pleasant experience, but bookmakers, in the main, are conservative gentlemen and the prospect of losing both business and reputation in a single afternoon is a strain most of the reliable lads do not relish . . . Meantime, from the complaints already sounded, Mr. Robinson's unexpected routine may have repercussions aiming to prevent a repetition of so drastic a departure from script over the air.

LEGION AFTERPIECE: National Commander Milo J. Warner of the Legion faces 100,000 miles of travel in his year's administration . . . The American Legion Convention at Boston is not officially ended . . . It will be mid-November before the books of the Legion Corporation of Massachusetts are closed . . . A new American Legion Corporation (of Wisconsin) is being set up immediately, and the process was speeded by the presence in Boston of Wisconsin's Secretary of State, who will issue the charter . . . More words were "fired" by the telegraph companies from Boston to newspapers of the country than from any previous convention . . . Fifteen operators were working continuously.

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY: Producer Sam H. Harris saw his show, "George Washington Slept Here," for the first time last night . . . Mr. H. was too ill to catch the first few performances at Hartford . . . Lovely little Peggy French, the Gotham Blue Book's representative in "GWSH," confided after the show that the realistic tan she wears with her bathing suit isn't a tan at all, but brown body makeup . . . Marion Edwards, and the exotic Tony Sorel also appear in the bathing-suit scene, and the three beauties devote hours a day to applying th stuff and—worse—getting it off . . . Miss French, by the way, was acquired by Jack Murray, former Governor Curley's right bower, at the Ritz Roof.

THE DEBS WILL HAVE their amateur night at the Ritz Roof tonight . . . Cynthia Sortwell will demonstrate a deb's idea of the rhumba . . . (And if a jive expert is a "hepatat," why shouldn't a rhumba-conga expert be a "hipcat?") . . . Barbara Coffin of Duxbury and Jean Collins, who studies at the Conservatory, will perform also . . . It being practically impossible to find an amateur that isn't a ringer, (in the experience of the Ritz's Ed Wyner), "Amateur Night at the Ritz" will end tonight for the season . . . The Roof itself will remain open until October 5.

CYNTHIA SORTWELL
She'll Give Deb's Idea of Rhumba

Hollywood Today

HE GETS WESTERN THRILLER ROLE

By Louella O. Parsons

T.G. Carillo

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 27.—In spite of the flooded market the series pictures keep coming on. Universal is going to spend a million dollars to make what they are calling the most pretentious serial ever put on the screen. It's a western thriller broken up in episodes to be called "Riders of Death Valley," with the hard ridin', gun totin' cast of Dick Foran, Leo Carrillo, Buck Jones, Charles Buckford and Noah Beery, Jr.

Recently I heard an interesting argument about these chapter pictures. In spite of the success of the "Judge Hardy's," "Thin Man," "Dr. Christian" and "Dr. Kildares" many Hollywood experts feel the serials have lost some of their punch at the box office. I agree that the latest "Nick Carter" starring Walter Pidgeon won't do him much good for it is a very weak picture for Walter, who is so popular now. There are reports that Lew Ayres is kicking up his heels about making any more "Dr. Kildares," but he shouldn't, for these "Kildares" brought him back into fame.

SYLVIA SIDNEY

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD: Broderick Crawford and Kay Griffith will be married within the next two months. They have already picked out their home in Brentwood, the cutest pair in town—Ann Gillis and Jackie Moran stepping out at the La Conga; that was Count Oleg Cassini with Betty Grable at Caro's; I couldn't help but comment how beautiful Iona Massey is since she is so thin. She was dining at the Brown Derby with Alan Curtis.

Sylvia Sidney and her infant son are in town. She had quite a reception at the preview of "Foreign Correspondent," where she went with Franchot Tone; Mae Murray, who keeps her figure and her looks, dining tete-a-tete with M. M. McCallen, the mayor of Huntington Park, at House of Murphy; Michael Visaroff's daughter, Leda, becomes the bride of Dr. Dale Arkov in November; Katherine Craig (Kay Feltus) will make a test at Paramount and nobody else but her boy friend, Robert Preston, will act with her.

Priscilla Lane is recovering from a spinal operation; Rita and Eddie Lowe have reached a settlement, so it looks as if their parting this time is final. Too bad; Nat Pendleton finished a seven-year contract at Metro and plans to do a personal appearance tour; John Shelton and Julie Colt (yes, of the revolver family) stepping out.

Claire Trevor's hair is chestnut color now after being platinum blonde for so long; Tina Thayer, under contract to Frank Capra, has been doing the town with Lew Ayres; Lynn Bari left for New York to join Walter Kane.

Forgot to say I lunched with Bob Taplinger at 21 when I was in New York. Bob remains in the East for the "Knute Rockne" broadcast at South Bend; Ruth Foran left today to join him and that romance is really hot.

REPUBLIC HAS ADDED a shorts department, which Harriet Parsons will head. I won't tell what I think of Harriet's ability because I might be accused of being partial but if you don't tell I said so I'll whisper I think she'll do a terrific job. She was with Columbia for five years and her shorts were excellent. Her job at Republic gives her a much better chance for shell write, produce and direct—and narrate.

She will make "Hollywood Highlights," twelve a year, and her first release is November 15. Robert Tobey, her camera man and able assistant for so long, will again be associated with her. Republic, under the able guidance of Herbert Yates, has made the most amazing strides of any of the younger companies during the last year.

JOHN SUTTON, the tall blonde and handsome 20th Century-Fox discovery, so pleased the powers-that-be in "Hudson's Bay" that he now gets himself a lead. He'll have the chief male role in "Man Hunt," formerly "Rogue Male," which John Ford is directing. If young John doesn't emerge a star with Ford directing him, then we'll say he's lost his golden opportunity.

He's an American lad of English-born parents with an interesting history. His father was in the wealthy class until the depression came and then the Sutton money was lost and John went out to work. Now he will probably be able to support his family in the way to which they have been accustomed.

PRESIDENTIAL BATTLE PAGE

THUMBS DOWN! What About Weir And Girdler?

(Provided by the National Committee of Democrats-For-Willkie)

You will see this poster on a huge billboard in Times Square, and on 10,000 other billboards in 37 States, from now until Election Day.

You will also see it in subways and street cars, on auto windshields and elsewhere.

It is sponsored by the No Third Term branch of the Democratic Party, the National Committee of Democrats-For-Willkie.

We believe that this poster will give every genuine Democrat who sees it something to think about.

We believe it may even give the Third Term Branch of the Democratic Party, the Democrats-For-Roosevelt, something to think about.

But we doubt very much if it will give the Third Term Branch anything to TALK about.

The Third Term is the one thing, above all others, that the Third Termers would rather not talk about.

HE WON'T TALK

Chairman Flynn of the Third Term Branch has had practically nothing to say on this issue. We understand that, in reply to a question, he did say once that it was a matter of little or no importance.

Such a remark is an insult to the intelligence of every Democrat and every American.

Has Chairman Flynn ever heard of Washington or Jefferson or Jackson or Cleveland or Wilson?

These great Presidents thought the Third Term was a matter of supreme importance.

Our history is full of their warnings against the danger to democracy of perpetuating a President in power.

Yet Mr. Flynn thinks the Third Term is of no importance, and he would rather not discuss it.

It strikes us as a little amusing—and a good deal more alarming—that the Chairman of the Third Term Branch is afraid even to mention the main issue of the campaign.

Mr. Flynn puts out a statement on an average of once a day attempting to "smear" Mr. Willkie. But he never has voluntarily opened his mouth to stem the rising tide of resentment against the bid for continued power which Mr. Roosevelt, aided and abetted by the little group of ambitious men around him, is now making.

Mr. Flynn knows he cannot stem this tide, and he evidently concludes that the best thing to do about it is to do nothing about it. His daily smoke screen of invective against Mr. Willkie is designed to hide the Third Term issue from the country.

JUST A REMINDER

Well, we hope these posters will remind all genuine Democrats—and all genuine Americans who believe "there is no indispensable man"—that the Third Term is an insidious but very dangerous attack on true Democracy.

Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Cleveland, and Wilson knew it.

Jim Farley and Jack Garner and other genuine Democrats know it.

Mr. Roosevelt himself used to know it before he listened to the little group of ambitious men around him and chose to forget it.

And we believe the whole country knows it and will weigh it so heavily in the balance when the day comes to vote that true Democracy will prevail over "unconscious dictatorship."

On that day, too, it seems possible that even Mr. Flynn will know it.

(Provided by the Democratic National Committee)

Although booming business usually carries with it an upsurge in strikes and other labor troubles, the present period of industrial expansion is remarkably free from such disturbances.

A survey recently made showed that there were fewer strikes in the first half of 1940 than in an corresponding period since 1934. There were fewer workers involved than since 1932 and fewer days lost than since 1930.

A record of this kind speaks well for the patriotism of labor and management in working together in amicable understanding for the general good. A wave of bickering and disputes, strikes and lock-outs at this time might cause a serious loss of work hours and hamper the progress of the defense program when speed is essential.

There are other factors at work, also, one of which is the excellent spade work done by the Roosevelt Administration in promoting the cause of industrial peace through wise legislation. Despite the bitter opposition of those who dislike any form of labor legislation, the national labor relations act has gone a long way toward substituting the orderly consideration of disputes between employer and employee for the industrial anarchy which formerly prevailed.

The act was sponsored by Senator Wagner, New York Democrat, who has been far ahead of his contemporaries in recognizing the need for a sound national labor policy. Although bitterly criticized during the past few years, the act is gaining a wider circle of friends all the time.

OVERSIGHTS BY WILLKIE

One of these is Wendell Willkie, who said in his speech at Seattle that enactment of this measure was long overdue. He added:

"But the New Deal has issued tons of propaganda to claim exclusive credit for that act. Whereas, in reality the National Labor Relations Act was modeled closely on the railway labor act which was passed by a Republican Administration."

"Now let me tell you straight from the shoulder. I stand for every one of the social gains that labor has made."

Candidate Willkie was guilty of two glaring oversights in placing his emphatic stamp of approval on the social gains made under the Roosevelt Administration. His staff of brain-trusters, or researchers as he prefers to call them, forgot to tell him that the Railway Labor Act was forced on a reluctant Republican Administration by a combination of Democrats and progressive Republicans.

The second oversight was his failure to point out that every one of these reforms was fought, and bitterly fought, by industrial magnates whose outlook goes back to the old blood and iron era. One of these is Tom Girdler, of Republic Steel, and another is Ernest T. Weir, of Weirton Steel, who is now chairman of the finance division of the Republican National Committee. He has the job of raising the cash for the Willkie campaign and unless the Republican nominee is more innocent than people suspect, he must know where the steel magnate proposes to get the funds.

OPPOSED AT EVERY STEP

No matter what Willkie professes to believe, the dwindling army of die-hard employers who have fought and bullied labor down through the years are lined up solidly in the Willkie camp. They expect something else from a Republican candidate besides a mild acquiescence in the Roosevelt social program.

The truth is that every one of the Roosevelt reforms came up the hard way. They were opposed and misrepresented at every step by the Old Guardians who started their fight in Congress, carried it through the courts, and then issued tons of propaganda to deceive the people.

It is true that many employers who formerly feared unionization of their plants are now completely sold on the idea precisely because it provides a more stable method of dealing with their employees. But no part of the credit belongs to Wendell Willkie or the Republican Party.

Smart Set Functions

DEBUTANTE Mary O'Day of Brookline, inveterate theatergoer, attended opening of the Plymouth last evening.

By BETTY ALDEN

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM TUDOR GARDINER, Mrs. C. Crosby Choate and many other urban socialites who have experienced the fun and heartaches of remodeling an old place in the country, got a big kick out of the new Kaufman and Hart comedy which opened at the Plymouth Theater last evening . . .

The play, "George Washington Slept Here," deals with the trials and tribulations of a city family who buy an old wreck of a house which is wreathed in sentiment because the Father of Our Country was supposed to have spent one night in it . . .

The Gardiners, attending with their debutante daughter, Margaret, laughed as heartily as the rest of the packed audience . . . Tall and distinguished, Mrs. Gardiner wore a violet dinner gown trimmed with white beads . . . Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Scudder (Betty Cram) were way down front, the latter accenting her blonde hair with a simple black dress and corsage of yellow orchids . . .

A huge orchid corsage was pinned to the vivid plaid bolero which topped Mary O'Day's black gown and Anne Blake wore gardenias on her oatmeal color wool dress . . . Chatting during intermission with Kaufman's wife, Mrs. Alfred McIntyre looked as chic as ever in black lace with diamonds sparkling in her ears and around her neck . . .

Still others in the gay-first night audience were Jean Clark with a tall husky escort, Mrs. Harold G. Kern in a becoming apple green gown, Mrs. Fitzwilliam Sargent carrying a big beaver muff with her olive green wool ensemble, Mrs. Francis B. Crowninshield, debutante Sylvia Choate, Rebekah Hobbs, Lavinia Sabine, Lois Tanner Greene with her partners, and many others . . .

Decoration Surprise

MRS. ROBERT WINTHROP KNOWLES of Tower House, Beverly Farms, has a flair for achieving novel effects in her party decorations so North Shore society is anticipating something very lavish and colorful at the ball she is giving at Tower House this evening to present her second daughter, Helen Appleton Knowles . . .

In order not to spoil the surprise, she is keeping the decorations a secret until guests arrive late this evening . . . but remembering daughter Anne's Venetian Garden debut in the same setting two years ago tonight, friends are expecting to find the house and broad terrace overlooking the ocean transformed into a beautiful floral setting . . .

Helen is receiving in a billowy pink tulle gown and her mother has chosen a gown of cream slipper satin . . . The ushers' dinner is taking place at the Essex County Club where guests will include Harrison Gardner Reynolds, head usher, Christian A. Herter, Jr., Bobby Knowles, brother of the debutante, George P. Denny, Jr., Benjamin Bradley, Charles Warner, Peter Hazard, Lawrence Butt, Gilbert Knowles, Walter Reed, Augustus Crocker and many of the debutante's intimate friends . . .

'90's Music Hall Revue

Debs Dance for Benefit

CYNTHIA SORTWELL, one of the North Shore's best rumba dancers, will don an 1890 costume and perform a number of solo dances as part of the local talent in the Gay Nineties Music Hall Revue for the benefit of New England Hospital for Women and Children next Thursday evening . . .

The Revue will be an after-theater party following a benefit performance of "Life With Father" at the Civic Repertory Theater. Members of the hospital committee have taken over the entire theater that evening and judging by the number of reservations pouring in the occasion will be one of the most festive charity affairs of the early fall season.

Theatergoers who have already planned parties for that evening include Mrs. Ralph Bradley, Mrs.

Theodore Brown, Mrs. Leeds Burchard, Mr. Eustell Burnett, Mr. Henry I. E. Smith, Mrs. Grosvenor Calais, Mr. Houghton Carr, Mrs. R. Perry Goss, Mrs. John W. Coolidge, Mrs. Edward Harding, Mr. Francis Irving, Mrs. Francis H. Kendall, Mrs. Augustus S. Nye, Mrs. Robert P. Peabody, Mrs. Donald Moffat, Mrs. Penelope Noyes, Mrs. Hilda P. Williams, Mrs. Frank Wright, Mrs. Albert S. Young, Mrs. Charles L. Lee, Mrs. Joseph W. Lund and Mrs. John B. . . .

HEINZ TOMATO KETCHUP

At Today's Low Prices Everyone Can Afford Heinz Quality

RECIPE

VEGETABLE STEW

● Cook 2 medium carrots 20 to 30 minutes and 3 doz. pearl onions in 3 cups boiling water 30 minutes. Add 1½ tablespoons salt and 4 medium potatoes, diced. Then cook just until tender. Add ½ cup each peas and corn and continue cooking just until vegetables are tender. Drain, reserving liquid; then brown vegetables in ½ cup butter. Stir in 2 tablespoons flour; then add ½ cup Heinz Tomato Ketchup, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley and the vegetable water. Cook until thickened.

Let the "red magic" of Heinz Tomato Ketchup give lively new interest to meat loaves, omelets, other family "stand-bys." With Heinz Ketchup you add not just one ingredient, but a medley of rich flavors—Heinz prize tomatoes, the world's finest spices and Heinz aged-in-wood vinegar. Use it in your cooking—and put a bottle on the dinner table tonight!

Canned Shrimp Comes to the Rescue!

By MARTHA LEE

WITH CHILLY winds just round the corner, we will soon be thinking of more hearty dishes—real "he-man" meals. At that's when canned shrimp are quick to come to the rescue in cockle-warming combinations with everything from milk to macaroni.

Canned shrimp are all cooked and just as ready for action in hot dishes of all kinds as they are for serving, chilled, in appetizers and salads. A turn of the can-opener and they're ready at once for heating up with all kinds of foods.

Don't even worry about that tiny black line that every shrimp carries—it's rich in iodine. If the government inspection label is on the can, that's all the insurance any menu needs.

HOT "QUICKIES" WITH CANNED SHRIMP

Supper Solution: Combine one can of shrimp with one can of spaghetti in tomato sauce for something quick and hot. Then sprinkle it with grated cheese and buttered bread crumbs for a delicious topping.

Luncheon Special: Add one No. 1 can of shrimp to one can of condensed tomato soup, heat and serve on toast for a quick luncheon special.

Sunday Night Supper: Shred canned shrimp and combine with scrambled eggs or an omelet. Serve with grilled tomatoes for any easy supper.

SHRIMP CROQUETTES

4 tbsp. butter
1-3 cup flour
1 cup milk
½ tsp. salt
Dash of cayenne
2 No. 1 cans shrimp, shredded
2 tsp. lemon juice
1 egg yolk
1 tsp. chopped parsley
1 egg
2 tbsp. water
Cracker crumbs
Melt butter in saucepan; blend in flour. Add milk stirring constantly until thickened; add seasonings. Add shredded shrimp. Beat onion juice and egg yolk, add with parsley to the creamed mixture. Cool. Form into 6 or 8 cone-shaped croquettes. Beat egg with water. Roll croquettes in crumbs, then in beaten egg, then in crumbs again. Fry in deep hot fat (350 deg. F.) until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve with egg sauce. Makes 6 servings.

SHRIMP AND MACARONI

1 pkg. macaroni
4 tbsp. butter
4 tbsp. chopped green pepper
3 tbsp. flour

2½ cups milk
½ tsp. salt
Dash of cayenne
1 No. 1 can shrimp
1 cup grated American cheese
Cook macaroni as directed on package. Melt butter in saucepan, add green pepper and sauté 10 minutes. Push pepper to one side of saucepan; blend in flour. Add milk, stirring constantly, and cook until thickened; add remaining ingredients and drained macaroni. Turn into buttered casserole. Bake in moderate oven (375 deg. F.) 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By Elsie Robinson

PULLING OUT from New Orleans—how I hate to leave it! Gay, narrow streets of the old French quarter. Friendly brown faces melting into the shadows. Gracious white hands waving from balcony and patio—fluttering, fading like white moths in the dusk. Then the old city with its crumbling mansions and its tumbling church bells go home.

And broad and brown "Old Man River" rolls hissing along. Old Man River moves down his Judgment Day—nobody and nothing stands in his way, feeding white folks, black folks and carrying on his chest all their life dreams of hope, life and love and death. Old Man River quiet, deep and strong, as you keep roll right along, don't you start drownin' their poor little song.

Then the river, too, is past. And now, quick as thought they'd swallowed you up with the daylight, the swamps and the bayous come crowding around you, go teaching out and out. You lean out, watching the waters creeping and crawling, hearing some voice deep inside you calling and calling.

Amazing! Barely ten minutes ago (radio and telephone). Now this! "Gloom of the live oaks, intricately braided and woven." Remember Sidney Lanier's lovely "Mistakes of Glyn?"

Flickering pattern of sunbeam and shade. Endless green twilight under those tangled of trees, webbed all together with lacework of trailing gray moss. Thickets of palmetto where the water lies dim and unmoving, filled with its blind, secret life.

And something else—lurking, long shadowed—something that looks like a log. Then suddenly moves, lashing out in gray fury, turning time back to the years before man ever came.

DARK WATERS coiling, tall live oaks bending, dipping their pale moss in warm, teeming slime. And high above, sharp as a bird call, the clean, swift scarlet of a trumpet vine.

"Gloom of the live oaks"—this too gives way to lush, flat acres of the sugar cane, clatters of friendly shacks and open creeks where, day and night, the little boats slip in and out, down to the Gulf for shrimp.

Have you heard of the blessing of those boats at Atchafalaya river? Each year when the season opens, around Aug. 1, there are high doings there. For the good priest has come from New Orleans to bless the fleet and the fishermen. Blessing the fleet and the fishers? Why should you sink that's strange?

For there's never a loaf baked or a shirt mended or a row of platters hoed but a miracle happens—the miracle of a man working with life, feeding his heart as well as his flesh with the labor of his hands, and dumbly touching another, greater hand.

THAT'S THE WAY we could go back to the old believing days our fathers' fathers knew, and bless not only the fishing fleet with prayer and dancing, but every other common chore for the pride and comfort it gives.

'FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT' BIG HIT ON LOEW'S SCREENS

Joel M'Rea Star Of War Drama

By PEGGY DOYLE

Too many cooks haven't spoiled Alfred Hitchcock's broth of a picture, "Foreign Correspondent," whose most important actor gets no billing on Loew's State and Orpheum marquee.

The actor? Who but the maestro's favorite actor, the camera, which, as it did in "Rebecca" and the earlier "Thirty-Nine Steps," even becomes the audience's eyes.

To capsule it to you, "Foreign Correspondent" which started out to be Vincent Sheean's "Personal History," before it eventually became a crazy quilt masterpiece by Hitchcock and four other writers, is the lowdown on a so-called spy reporter assigned to "get the story" on the European war.

He gets it . . . and you get mystery, intrigue, romantic action, war, a spy plot, swell comedy on the heels of the most monstrous movie drama and, throughout its tinging 119 minutes, thrilling entertainment.

CAUGHT IN PLOT

And so, as we indicated earlier, Police Reporter Joel McCrea, whose "beat" hadn't required him to keep abreast of foreign affairs, is sent by New York editor Harry Davenport to scoop the foreign correspondents on the European war. "Just a big crime story, any way."

McCrea, thinking Hitler "would be a good guy to pump," finds him- self smack in the middle of a "fifth column" plot in London involving the apparently high-minded head of an international peace outfit, Herbert Marshall, the latter's well-eyed, completely sincere daughter, Laraine Day. He is present—and it is an amazingly well done sequence of a re-created block in

'RANGERS OF FORTUNE' MET'S FILM HEADLINER

Pug-nosed, 13-year-old Betty Brewer and her three musketeers, who came to the Met screen yesterday in "Rangers of Fortune," a Western-ribbing honey, should be stringing along with Director Sam Wood and Paramount studios for some time to come. If their strange palship isn't the beginning of a refreshing, rib-tickling, rootin'-tootin' series, well, sue us.

Betty's oddly assorted gallants are an ex-West Pointer gone gay-west, a sharp-shooting, soft-spoken caballero and a plug-ugly with a nice heart and a mean left hook, who would be, respectively, Fred MacMurray, Gilbert Roland and Albert Dekker. They are as good-hearted a threesome of bandies as you'd find if you roamed any range.

Fugitives from a firing squad after a gun-running conviction, they become little Betty's protectors, rubbing out a gang of hoodlums of the '70s (that's the period, we forgot to tell you) who have murdered her editor-grandpappy and terrified the settlers of Santa Maria.

There are shootings galore and the brilliant director of "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," demonstrating he can cozen up to any script, manages Amsterdam—when the honest Dutch statesman is assassinated. Later, he discovers the diplomat, beautifully, nobly played by Albert Basserman, has been kidnapped by Marshall's organization, actually a spy-ring, and that a double has been assassinated to give the impression he is dead.

SMASHES TO CLIMAX

The action moves with machine-gun precision to a climax, a transatlantic clipper crash that will raise goose-pimples on the open already there. (Another Hitchcock trick, making the audience suffer.)

to spice the action with romance and comedy without slowing it up a jot.

Spunky Betty took the family off relief in Joplin, Mo., and out to Hollywood and an eventual $100-a-week job for her by organizing a younger brother and sister into a street-singing trio. Director Wood heard her outside the Brown Derby—and here she is stealing the picture.

You'll love her—not because she's like Shirley Temple or Jane Withers used to be. Gosh, no! Betty's done a lot of living and not on a movie lot and it shows in her funny, little face. She's completely natural, and her idols, Dekker and Wood, predict she'll be a swell dramatic actress.

As for Dekker and Wood, they're not so bad, either. In fact, this actor and director are an ace working team.

"The Quarterback," starring Wayne Morris, is the co-feature.

The Woman Who Lived in Hitler's House

The Story So Far:

PAULINE KOHLER, beautiful German girl, became a maid in Hitler's mountain chalet through the efforts of influential friends who had previously obtained her release from Dachau Concentration Camp, where she was imprisoned for talking unguardedly about the Nazi regime.

PAULINE KOHLER

Life in that isolated fortress, known to the world as Berchtesgaden, proved to be a mixture of piratical luxury, rigid discipline, medieval astrology, ultra-modern precautions against assassination, barbaric cruelty and never-ending suspicion.

Among Pauline Kohler's revelations are the identities of the three Hitler doubles; the nature of the Fuehrer's illness; the particular roles leading Nazi officials, including Goering, Goebbels, Streicher and Hess, play in the government of modern Germany, and the elaborate plans made to continue the dictatorship in the event of the Chancellor's death.

In detail, she has described the two women who, favored above all others in Naziland, might have married Hitler and shared his vast power.

Today, she adds to her intimate account of Eva Braun, the ambitious photographer, who was the target of Dr. Goebbels' jealousy and insults.

By Pauline Kohler

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This story is published, without opportunity for comment, for what the author purports it to be.)

GOEBBELS stared directly at Eva Braun, turned, and left the room and the party. Needless to say, the party was not an immense success. Next morning the story was repeated all over Berlin with a good deal of embellishment. Eva Braun was branded as a full-blooded Jewess. Hitler heard of this, and at once ordered an investigation into her ancestry. It was proved that she was pure Aryan.

Hitler was furious at Goebbels' insult. He made him send a letter of apology to Fraulein Braun and publish a series of laudatory articles throughout the German press, extolling her artistry with a camera.

Hoffmann, too, felt he had to take his revenge on the little doctor. For all I know he may be still taking it, for it consisted of having candid camera shots taken of Goebbels, each one emphasizing the elusiveness from which Goebbels has the misfortune to suffer. They are not published in Germany, but they are circulated privately, and cause Goebbels considerable distress.

This little business seemed to confirm the Fuehrer in his admiration for Fraulein Braun. At any rate, immediately after the question of the lady's descent was satisfactorily settled, they went off together to Goering's country mansion, Karin Hall, not far from Berlin. Goering, who usually did not approve his master's interest in women, this time gave his wholehearted co-operation to the affair. He saw in it a way of annoying Goebbels.

When they came back to Berchtesgaden I saw a good deal of her.

I did not like her. She seemed to have a large streak of cruelty in her character. Her own maid came with her, and I saw often come down to the servants' quarters with her, eyes red from weeping, and sometimes a deep red stain disfigured her face where her mistress had slapped it.

In revenge she had collected a fund of malicious stories about her. One she told us I think is too good to be kept to myself.

It was on one of Eva's visits to the Berlin Chancellery to keep a lunch appointment with the Fuehrer. She entered through the private door which leads into a great hall with highly polished parquet flooring. This hall ends in a large door leading to Hitler's private apartments.

On either side of the door, facing it, stand two bulky bodyguards in immaculate uniform. They stand rigidly at attention for three-hour shifts, and are more like statues than men.

SLIPS ON FLOOR

Eva, proud at having lunch with Germany's supreme ruler, walked across the hall, head held high. A little too high, for, just as she was approaching the open door flanked by the bodyguards, her heel slipped on the polished floor. She flung her hands out to save herself, and managed to grab the trouser-seat of the right-hand guard. For a second he remained motionless, but as Eva's feet slid from under her and her clutch on him tightened they both crashed to the floor together.

A second later Hitler appeared in the doorway just in time to see the flurry of Eva's legs as she struggled to scramble to her feet with her skirt almost up to her hips, while the guard found himself with his nose buried in her neck.

Eva Braun is still a friend of Hitler. At least, she was when I left. She still saw him regularly, only their conversation ran on political rather than on love. She hated Britain. I have often heard her jeer at Britain's cowardice. Hitler listened to her with some amusement, but often contradicted her.

"The British are fools, but not cowards. They only seem like cowards because they are so badly led. But when they get in the trenches they fight like madmen. I know. I have fought against them," he once declared.

"There are only three countries which produce great soldiers—Germany, France, and Britain. Other countries only play at fighting. And today Germany's soldiers are the best in the world—because they are fighting for ideals, the tremendous ideals of National Socialism!"

FRAULEIN X!

Hitler had another woman friend when I was at Berchtesgaden. I cannot say anything about. To me she will always be Fraulein X, because it is to her that I owe my freedom. All I can say is that she was the best influence Hitler has ever known. It is a thousand pities for the world that she did not become his wife.

Fraulein Kirstner is another woman who has played and, for all I know, still does play, a tremendous part in Hitler's life. She is forty, plain, comfortably stout, and with no pretensions to any kind of dazzling charm. To me she will always be the greatest mystery in the Fuehrer's life. She was at Berchtesgaden when I arrived. She was there when I left.

She has nothing to do with the running of the establishment. She usually takes her meals in the two rooms in which she lives. But she is a permanency at Berchtesgaden. She does what she likes, goes where she likes, says what she likes—unquestioned. I know she often spends several hours alone with Hitler. And that is about all I do know.

But when the history of Hitler's years of power is fully told I am as certain as I am certain of anything that the world will learn more of Fraulein Kirstner.

A DOCTOR'S VIEW

There are two more things I must say about Hitler and his world. An Austrian physician who happened to do a good deal and get a good doctor visited Berchtesgaden. He could not help studying the Fuehrer as a patient. I know what his verdict was, for he told a Munich doctor who afterwards attended me.

There were his words: "The Fuehrer

THE FUEHRER IN HIS JOLLIEST MOOD
The Kind of Picture Shrewd Eva Braun Liked to Take.

er is a great man, but that is not to say that he is sane. I admire his work for Germany, but I still have my beliefs as a doctor. If I were speaking of him as a patient I should say he was an ego-maniac with a split personality. One side of him is brutal. The other is weak and sentimental. When this side predominates he needs the company of women. They flatter his ego and bolster up his pride. That, I am certain, is the only reason why the Fuehrer has affairs with women—not because he is really in love with them, but because he is so madly in love with himself."

And here, more in the nature of a footnote than anything else, because I cannot vouch for it personally, is a story I was told by one of the staff.

It concerns a beautiful Hungarian woman who came to Berchtesgaden and conquered Hitler. The story goes that after he had known her for a week he asked her to be his wife. She smiled and said: "I am afraid it is not so easy to conquer a woman as a country."

Don't miss Pauline Kohler's behind-the-scenes story of the seizure of Austria—in tomorrow's American.

BUSINESS MANAGER Larry MacPhail of the Brooklyn Dodgers did not make any money for his club, but he did give baseball a lift by his personal color and showmanship . . . MacPhail added to his list of feats at yesterday's double-header in Brooklyn between the Dodgers and Bees when he presented an automobile to a lucky fan.

MacPhail has admitted during the course of the hectic pennant race that his bank balance has been as low as $1800 after he has completed a deal for a high priced star . . . MacPhail never worries about price if he is eager to secure the services of a particular player . . . It is reported that Larry tossed $200,000 into the treasury of the St. Louis Cardinals for Ducky Medwick.

LARRY MAC PHAIL

At the time it looked as if the deal would give the Dodgers the National League pennant . . . Unfortunately Medwick got hit on the head by a pitched ball and was then rushed back into the game before he was ready to play . . . The result was that Medwick fell off in his batting, and the Dodgers lost their chance to beat out the Reds . . . Leo Durocher later took the blame for putting Medwick back into the game too soon.

One of these days MacPhail is going to come up with the combination that will give the Dodgers the pennant . . . Anyone who will try as many new things as the Dodgers' head is entitled to get the results he desires.

As Joe Cashman left for Cleveland to "cover" the Cleveland-Tigers series for the American-Record, he told me that he believes the Reds will win the world's series.

"The American League club that wins will be tired out by the terrific drive in the closing stretches of the flag fight, while the Reds will be rested and on edge for the series," said Joe . . . "Bill McKechnie has been figuring out all Summer how he can win the world's championship."

Cincinnati is wild over the coming series . . . The big department stores are carrying page advertisements in which they offer the Reds words of encouragement and then ask them not to let Cincinnati down in the series . . . The only American League club McKechnie fears is the Yanks . . . He has told intimates that the Reds will beat either Detroit or Cleveland.

INDIANS RELY ON FELLER TO STAY IN PENNANT RACE

CLEVELAND, Sept. 27 (AP)—Though hurt and disappointed by the team llickering that probably has deprived them of their first baseball pennant in 20 years, Cleveland fans prepared to give one final, dogged yell for their staggering Indians today.

Near 50,000 of them, faintly hoping that the miracle might yet happen, were expected to crowd into the great municipal stadium for the opening game of the "do-or-die" series against the teething Tigers from Detroit.

Judging from a score of scattered conversations with bewildered fans, hope almost has fled a city that was baseball wild only a few weeks ago.

"I guess it's too much to hope that we can win three straight, even if Feller beats them in the first one," sighed a regular. "But if we can't win I hope those Yankees don't. I'd never go to another game if they did."

It was plain to see that little fight was left in the province by the way they greeted the Detroit team upon its arrival last night. Only a sprinkling of tomatoes, turnips, lemons and eggs were tossed at the station, and those with lamentable lack of control.

TIGERS REALLY CONFIDENT

There even were some cheers for Schoolboy Rowe, the pitcher who had been tentatively nominated by Manager Del Baker to try to knock the Indians completely out of the race today and assure the Tigers at least a tie with the still fighting Yanks.

The Detroit players go into the series brimming with confidence that they will wrap it up quickly.

Manager Del Baker was not quite so sanguine. He had a lot of things on his mind, and the more he thought over the situation the more undecided he became about pitching Rowe today.

He said he probably wouldn't decide finally until game time, but it looked like a good bet that one of his youngsters, either Harold Newhouser or Floyd Gilbell, would get the call.

"With all the rest he's had Howe to get that second game."

CONCEIVE WIN TO FELLER. In other words, looked like the Tiger under night candles, one victory to Feller, another to Rowe. After that, the pennant would be about a even. But, Feller to beat. I can't count on using him again in this series, and I've got to use one of my youngsters tomorrow. It was pointed out to him that he would need a pair of victories if the Yanks should win their remaining four, but that didn't bother him.

"We've got to play the percentage," he said, "and the Yanks figure to lose one."

It was quite a problem that Baker had on his mind at that for if Rowe should lose to Feller, the Detroit staff would be in bad shape. Buck Newsom won't be available before Sunday, and Baker doesn't figure on using the veteran Tommy Bridges again until the first game of the World Series. The entire Cleveland mound staff, on the other hand, is rested and ready to go.

B. C. Arrives in New Orleans After Fine Georgia Workout

By JOHN GILLOOLY

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 27—Having shown Coach Frank W. Leahy that they are ready in every respect, during a sizzling one-hour drill at Georgia Tech, the eye-filling Boston College football squad landed here bright and early this cool morning, ending their two-day journey from the Hub city for the turmoil with Tulane in the Sugar Bowl tomorrow, when 35,000 customers will sit in upon an early-season classic.

Coach F. W. Leahy was grinning slightly this a. m. as the Eagles left their rolling caravan and sauntered up Canal at, gazing at the scenery and being gazed upon themselves by the natives, who probably wondered if these were Orson Welles men from Mars.

FINAL CHECK TODAY

After checking in at the sedate Jung Hotel, the Eagles were given the morning off, but were ordered to report at noon for lunch and be ready for a 2 p. m. session at the Loyola University field for a final checkup of the defensive bulwarks they've built for this battle.

Yesterday, at Georgia Tech, the Eagles brushed off their offense. They swept through a group of intricate, involved plays with accuracy and precision that one and all agreed the B. C.'s are set to pounce upon Tulane and jar their teeth loose.

Georgia Tech's gridmen and their coaches, Bill Alexander and Bobby Dodds, saw a part of the rehearsal and were either deeply impressed with the Eagles size and spirit and speed or accomplished flatlatter. Charlie O'Rourke made the sharp hit. The veteran Alexander hinted that chucking Charlie may be the best thrower they have seen in the Sugar Bowl, aware that Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien and other All-America pitchers have been predecessors. O'Rourke yesterday escaped disaster by a perilous margin. He slipped while drifting back to get at a loss and twisted his left ankle. The thin triple threat career up limping whilst a dozen hearts stood still. Fans were dismissed this a. m. as Charlie found his ankle normal, without swelling or pain. He will be ready and so will the other B. C.'s and this is well. Even a slight injury to a key player at this point would be calamity because the game looms as a grim, hard-hitting collision with B. C. needing all hands.

Down here in the gay Crescent City they think highly of the invasion from the heights. They are not underestimating them but still do not think they can tumble Tulane, which has been referred to in the sports pages as "Dawson's Destroyer" or "Tulane's Herd of Rhinos" or "The Green Tidal Wave." Yes, it's a tidal wave. Until now it was merely the Green wave.

The Eagles, avid readers, have scanned all these lush notices concerning the enemy yet remain undismayed.

BACKER FOUND IN SOUTH
They have the confidence of a great team, the determination of a team of destiny.

Bell-hop No. 1 noticed this at once, making a fast and sure observation as the big and beaming B. C.'s stomped into the palm studded lobby of the Jung. Bell-hop No. 2, so he said, happens to be a student of football handicaps and prices.

"Soon's these bags are up I'll be off to get some bets down, and on Boston College," he said revealing that the books were giving six points on Tulane and that it was his own personal opinion that the books are a trifle sore on this matter.

They wager on points hereabouts and "giving six points on Tulane" means that the Green wave must finish out front by seven points if their backers are to collect. If you wish to put it on the line, northern style the odds would be two to one.

RULES GOVERNING THE FOOTBALL CONTEST

The object of the Daily Record-American Football Contest is to select winners of twenty collegiate football games, to be played each Saturday. Anyone may enter this contest, excepting employees of the Record-American, and their families.

The selections are listed on the chart here, which is ready to be filled out by the contestant. Simply place an (X) in the space nearest the name of the team you think will win, or if you predict a tie game, place the letter (T) in the space nearest the names of the tying teams.

Calculate the AVERAGE score of all competing teams, except those for which you predicted a tie score. Write winners' and losers' average score in space provided in coupon. Do not write individual scores in spaces, or on the coupon. Indicate average scores only by adding scores of all teams, and then divide the total by the number of teams competing.

You may enter on many sets of coupons on one like. All entries must be to the office of the Record-American, not later than midnight, Friday, the day before the games.

You need not buy a copy of the Record or American to enter this contest. Trustees of the contest fund may be made from copies in the public library, or in the Record-American office. Six entries will be acceptable, and given equal consideration with those clipped from these newspapers.

A prize of $100.00 will be awarded the person whose entries contain all selections correct. If more than one person submits perfect selections, $100.00 will be awarded the team contestant whose average score tabulations most nearly match the actual average scores of the games. If no perfect list of selections is entered, $50.00 will be awarded to the contestant having the nearest number of selections correct and should two or more contestants tie for this prize, the tying contestant submitting the most nearly correct average scores will receive the award. A prize of $25.00 will be awarded the person submitting the second largest number of correct selections, and should two or more contestants tie for this prize, the tying contestants submitting the most nearly correct average scores will receive the prize. Twenty-five awards of $1.00 each will be given the twenty-five contestants whose entries contain, in succession, the most largest number of correct selections, and whose average scores most nearly match the actual average scores of the games.

Winners of each week contest will be announced on the Saturday following the games. The decisions of the judges in all cases shall be final.

All entries to the Record-American Football Contest Editor, P. O. Box 1987, Boston, Mass.

In the event of postponement of any of the games, such game will automatically be excluded from the contest. In the event that the planned date of any game scheduled is changed, then that game is automatically excluded.

Collyer Picks Tulane Over B. C.

By COLLYER

(1939 Champion Football Forecaster)

Tulane's Green Wave and the high-flying Eagles of Boston College clash at New Orleans tomorrow in one of the outstanding intersectional battles of the 1940 season.

Although a number of stellar performers are missing from last year's Sugar Bowl squad, Tulane is expected to be a power in the south again this fall. Coach Red Dawson hopes to lead the Greenies to the Southeastern Conference championship and another whirl at Texas Aggies.

Heralded as one of the east's strongest elevens, Boston College is at a disadvantage facing Tulane so early in the campaign—and at New Orleans. We are stringing along with the Green Wave in a close game.

Mississippi figures to trip Louisiana State for the third straight year. Duke tunes up against V. M. I. while North Carolina is the choice over Wake Forest in a close tilt. Mississippi State figures over Florida.

In the southwest, Texas faces Colorado, prospective champion of the Rockies. The Longhorns should triumph. Texas Aggies will trounce Texas A & I, conqueror of San Jose State, and T. C. U. has the call over Centenary.

Only a few of the major eastern elevens pry off the lid this Saturday. Except for the smaller colleges, set-up games are the order of the day.

BUCK NEWSOM is baseball's new man of the hour... With 21 victories to his credit, Newsom has done more than any other Tiger player to keep his club in the pennant race all season... Newsom is a former member of the Sox pitching staff... If he was still with the Sox and had won 21 games for the men of Cronin this year, Boston would be the American League's representative in the coming World's Series... Auker, who couldn't pitch a lick for the Sox, has won 15 games for the Browns... Auker, too, would have been of help to the poor Red Sox pitching staff this season... For some unknown reasons pitchers don't excel when with the Red Sox... The cases of Newsom and Auker are examples.

Manno, who hit a home run for the Bees against Brooklyn with the bases filled, was developed by Bob Coleman... Manno looks as if he will develop into a star... It was Coleman who brought out Chet Ross who has had such a sensational year for the Bees at bat and in the field... Hank Greenberg and Gerald Walker were also proteges of Coleman... Bob Quinn has built up one of the finest farm systems in the country with men like Coleman in key positions.

It will be of interest to Holy Cross players to know that the Louisiana State line, which will try to stop them a week from tomorrow, averages about 200 pounds from end to end, and that the weight of the backs varies between 165 and 198 pounds... It was Louisiana State's forward passing attack, with Ken Kavanaugh on the receiving end, which beat Holy Cross in a game played at Worcester last season... This year's game will be played at Baton Rouge... Here is the present two-team lineup at Louisiana:

MAX BAER K.O.'S COMISKEY; LOOMS AS LOUIS' ONLY FOE

By LAWTON CARVER
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (INS)—Running strictly to form, Max Baer today, paradoxically, was the hero of a fiasco. The former heavyweight champion who in his day has built many a bonfire with the candles he burned at both ends suddenly found some where within himself the urge to fight and win by a knockout in an unbelievably bizarre encounter.

The victim, of course, was Patrick Edward Comiskey, whose career probably has been blasted for good. He wasn't only beaten in two minutes and 39 seconds, he was humiliated by the outcome of the fight.

Comiskey was the 7 to 5 favorite going into the ring at 19, quite logically figured to batter down the more or less dissipated hulk of the 31-year-old former titleholder.

Instead, Comiskey was made to look like the novice he is in the Jersey City ball park last night, in a dramatic interruption to his career, and a rehabilitation of Baer as a fighter.

I still don't think Baer could

SURPRISE.
Pat Comiskey dropped to canvas by Max Baer in first round of their bout at Jersey City. Comiskey got up but his hatches were battered again by Baer, and with the 19-year-old hanging helplessly on the ropes, Referee Jack Dempsey declared Baer the winner on a technical kazo. End came at 2:39 of very first round and put former heavyweight champ back in running for title bout with Louis. It was the first time Comiskey had been stopped, and the second fight he had lost in 30 starts as pro.

fight, and I don't think he will if he finds himself sufficiently hard pressed.

will if he finds himself sufficiently hard pressed.

But last night Baer had no fear of his opponent a tank outside - and furthermore Jack Dempsey was the referee.

BAER OVERWEIGHT

I suggested the other day that the toughest break in Comiskey's pugilistic life was the selection of Dempsey to be the third man in the ring, and the point was proved in the actual combat.

Dempsey's mere presence made Baer a great fighter for this one fleeting moment specifically for 2 minutes and 39 seconds. Baer did not fear Comiskey, and he wanted to look good to Dempsey. The result tells the story.

Actually overweight at 223½ pounds against Comiskey's finely drawn 207½, Baer seemed to know, too, that he had to win quick because he might not be able to go the scheduled 15 rounds.

What he did then was to lead Comiskey on to a few futile stabs before he launched his own attack.

Once under way he was terrific so terrific that Referee Dempsey's face lost all its color when he was caught by the drama and excitement of the moment.

Baer landed a right hand that left the left side of Comiskey's face looking as if somebody had belted him with a ripe tomato. The former champion then weaved away from Comiskey's feeble leads and followed a body attack with a beautiful deadly right hand to the chin.

Comiskey dropped where he stood over by the ring ropes, then struggled to his feet at four. Sensing his predicament, he immediately dropped to his knees again to take a nine count.

He finally made it back to his feet by the hardest effort and was greeted by a salvo that knocked him into a daze that over the ropes, helpless and badly beaten.

SPECTACULAR FIGHT

Referee Dempsey stepped in and officially brought a first round finish to the battle who was supposed to be built into an opponent for Joe Louis and for the heavyweight championship next year.

As the result of last night's doings which left everybody quite informed, Baer is back in line for a fight with Louis for the title.

RULES FOR W. R. HEARST CITIZEN'S RIFLE SHOOT POSTED

The William Randolph Hearst Citizen Marksmanship competition is open to all Americans. The matches will be conducted during the winter months. Entries will close on December 1.

It is suggested that all teams be organized at once so that the necessary practice sessions can be held before the competition for the Hearst trophy.

OPEN TO:

(a)—any established rifle league conducted by a rifle club or association and composed of senior, civilian riflemen—

(b)—any league organized for the purpose of these matches, composed of senior, civilian rifle teams—

Leagues may consist of not less than four teams.

Where leagues are not already in existence, the Hearst newspapers will cooperate in the formation of new leagues for the purpose of these matches.

HOW TO ENTER LEAGUE

Where leagues are already established they may be entered as a unit and participate in the competition under their present officers. Leagues may continue their course of fire, schedule, handicapping system and prize schedule as used in the past. N. R. A. rules must govern the firing and final decision of protests must rest with Ed Moore, Rifle Editor of the Hearst newspapers (or with the National Rifle Association, as provided below). The schedule of matches for each league will be prepared by the league secretary.

This schedule must be so arranged that every team will fire against every other team in the league at least once. As soon as the schedule has been approved by the team representatives the secretary will forward two copies for the rifle editor of this newspaper, together with the names and addresses of all team captains and two complete sets of the league conditions.

Where a league is entered in the Hearst Civilian Competition and also in the National Rifle Association's Gallery League Competition, protests will be settled as provided in the National Rifle Association's Gallery League rules. Their decision will be final.

DATES OF FIRING:

League matches and league championships—Scheduled matches must not start before October 1, 1940 nor after January 10, 1941. Scheduled matches must be completed and league championships determined not later than April 15, 1941.

Hearst Championships—will be fired about May, 1941.

SIZE OF TEAMS:

Leagues may draft their own regulations designating the number of shooters who may fire and the number of scores to count for record in the league matches.

FOUR ON TEAM

In the HEARST CHAMPIONSHIPS competing will include four shooters (all scores to count) and a coach. No shooter is eligible to fire in this match unless he has competed in at least one-half of the league matches scheduled for his team during the season.

League championships will be determined on the basis of matches won and lost. A handicap system may be used. Whenever possible league matches will be fired on a shoulder-to-shoulder basis.

HEARST CHAMPIONSHIPS matches will be open to:

(a)—The league champion in each league operating on a won and lost basis.

(b)—The league champion and the team having the high aggregate score for the season in leagues operating on a handicap system.

Wherever possible the Hearst Championships will be fired on a shoulder-to-shoulder basis.

COURSE OF FIRE

Leagues may use any course of fire agreeable to the teams within the league.

All teams in a league do not need to use the same distance, if such procedure is agreeable to all the teams in that league.

The HEARST CHAMPIONSHIPS will be fired on registered targets provided by the Hearst newspapers. The course of fire will be:

Twenty shots offhand, 20 shots prone at 50 feet with either metallic or telescope sights.

SCORING AND PROTESTS

In league competitions fired shoulder-to-shoulder, an official scorer for each match will be appointed by the league secretary or the captains of the opposing teams.

In team competitions fired on a postal basis, targets will be scored by a local scorer appointed by the league secretary and will be mailed within 24 hours to the team captain.

Witches Stand in Way Of Lynn English Streak

By SAM BROGNA
Lynn English will be out for its second straight killing tonight in a flood-lighted contest with the Salem High Witches at the spacious Manning Bowl. In one of four other out-of-town tilts, Peabody High, winners of its first two games by the identical scores of 6 to 0, treks to Haverhill, where it will fulfill an engagement with St. James.

The other three will find Rindge Tech, conquerors of Fitchburg in its opener, meeting Haverhill on the latter's field; Wor. Trade taking on New Bedford Vocational and Wor. Commerce having it out with city rival, Wor. South.
The English-Salem tilt should offer North Shore fans a full evening of exciting football. For Toni Whelan's Englishmen it is game No. 2, they having opened with a surprise 13 to 0 win over Lowell in the opening game last week, but, for Bill Broderick's Witches, a witch organization which does not possess the enchantment of teams

The QUIZZICAL CAMERA MAN

Every day the Quizzical Camera Man trots around Boston armed with five different questions. He asks each question of as many people as necessary until he gets the right answer. To each person answering a question correctly he hands out a crisp new ten-dollar bill. Maybe he'll be in your neighborhood tomorrow. He gives away

$50.00 EVERY DAY

Question No. 1—With what sport was Sir Thomas Lipton associated?
Suggested Answers:
(a) Baseball (c) Yachting
(b) Tennis (d) Polo

Your quizzical camera man popped this question at Harvard Square, Cambridge. Harry Kurman of Maple St., Rosbury, an attendant, was the first person approached and he was the first ten dollar winner of the day when he checked answer "C."

Question No. 2—How many are there in a "baker's dozen"?
Suggested Answers:
(a) Six (c) Twelve
(b) Seven (d) Thirteen

No less than three persons fell down on this question before Mildred Holman of Sydney St., Somerville, a student, came across with the right answer, which was "D." This question was asked on Massachusetts Ave., Back Bay. She also was given a ten dollar bill for her answer.

Question No. 3—For what is Bill Robinson famous?
Suggested Answers:
(a) Automobile racing (c) Tennis playing
(b) Tap dancing (d) Writing poetry

It was on Cambridge St., Allston, that this question was asked of Charles C. Horn of Lee St., Cambridge. For knowing the right answer Mr. Horn received a crisp new ten dollar bill. Of course "B" is the only correct answer to this question.

Question No. 4—What is the name of the latest Latin-American dance?
Suggested Answers:
(a) Tango (c) La Paloma
(b) La Conga (d) Boogie-Woogie

Mabel Sullivan of Nutley, New Jersey, a visitor to our fair city, did not have any trouble with this question and was the third ten dollar winner of the day. Miss Sullivan was stopped on Huntington ave., Boston. La Conga is the latest Latin-American dance.

Question No. 5—What is a "Martini"?
Suggested Answers:
(a) A bird (c) A candy bar
(b) A stupid person (d) A cocktail

It was on Brighton ave., that Mrs. Catherine Sweeney was asked this question and she promptly checked answer "D" which was absolutely correct. Today Mrs. Sweeney is ten dollars richer.

REVERE, CHelsea BATTLE TO 13-13 TIE

Showing a complete reverse in form, Coach George Kennedy's Revere High gridmen almost turned the tables on Chelsea High's Red Devils last night and had to be satisfied with a 13 to 13 deadlock after piling up a two-touchdown lead.

The Red Devils entered the fray as heavy favorites to turn back the beachcombers but were more than surprised when their opponents rang up two touchdowns and seemed headed for certain victory until Ziggy Nicewicz took matters into his own hands.

Dado DiPasquale, quarterback, tallied the first Revere score midway of the opening period when he intercepted a Fitzpatrick pass on his own 15-yard line and roused 35 yards. Earl Russo added the extra point with a placement.

Johnny Morelli, fullback, added the second marker in the next quarter with a 55-yard run after snaring another Fitzpatrick pass on his own 47.
Shortly after taking Morelli's kickoff, Nicewicz put Chelsea back in the ball game by scoring from the 10-yard line, working the ball to this point himself. He also tallied the other score in the third canto.

Huskies Off On Long Ride To Vermont

Northeastern University's football squad left Boston this morning on a 230-mile train ride to Burlington, Vt., where it doesn't know what to expect from the University of Vermont tomorrow afternoon.
When the game is scheduled, early last year, Head Coach Jimmy Dunn made it a point to find out something about the Vermonters in their last few games last fall.
Since that time, however, Fuzzy Evans has taken over the coaching reins and probably has changed the Vermont attack completely.
The Huskies know one thing, however; that is the running ability of Charlie Taylor, outstanding Vermont back. Taylor is rated one of the best performers in New England small college circles.

Michigan, Tulane Ohio State Named Big Game Choices

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (AP)—Taking the first blindfold test of the 1940 football season and gently reminding that everybody in this country is entitled to his own opinion, no matter how misguided he may be:

NORWICH HERE FOR B.U. TEST

Making its first Boston appearance in years, a Norwich squad, fit and ready, arrived in town this morning to provide Boston University with plenty of opposition in the Terriers opener tomorrow afternoon at Weston.

Norwich, definitely on the upgrade, hopes to come through with the first upset of the New England football season by setting the Terriers back with an "iron man" club.

By not playing their freshmen tomorrow, the Horsemen are going to keep most of their men in there all the way and build their hopes around Walter "Dynamo" Domina. This sophomore sensation, who led the East in scoring most of last season, got away to a flying start last Saturday against Monclair Teachers in a warmup game. He picked up 57 yards in the 18th drive he carried the ball, scored two touchdowns, passed for another and place-kicked an extra point. Taking no chances, Coach Pat Hanley is starting a veteran B. U. team, with the exception of the left end, which will be taken care of by Al Amerault, a sophomore.

Sand Hill Nine To Celebrate

A victory dance to celebrate its highly successful season will be staged by the Seiuote Sand Hills baseball team at the Sand Hills Community House on Friday night, Oct. 11.

The Sand Hills team played 15 games this year, winning a dozen games. It is a self-supported team, financing its purchase of uniforms and other equipment. Much of the work of grading the Sand Hills field and making it into a usable diamond was done by the team members in their spare time.

The team is managed by Edwin Breslin of Somerville, chairman of the dance, and includes in its lineup Jackie Conway, Bob Healy, Charley Hamilton, Bob Shea, Jim Fitzpatrick, Paul Dargin, "Red" Dickenshield, Larry Finn, Jim McGowan, Bill Tyrrell and Eddie Crowley, all Seiuote summer residents.

Challedon at Havre For $15,000 Test

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., Sept. 27 (AP)—Challedon, fit as the proverbial fiddle, arrived at Havre de Grace yesterday afternoon from New York, apparently ready and anxious to go postwar in the $15,000 added Havre de Grace Handicap, tomorrow's feature at a mile and a furlong. Challedon will be asked to carry 130 pounds.

BEARS OPEN AT FENWAY WEDNESDAY

Sheldon H. Fairbanks, general manager of the Boston Bears, announced today that the Bears will open their American Professional Football League season against the Columbus Bullies in a night game at Fenway Park on Wednesday.

The Bullies were the League champions in 1939, winning nine games and losing two. Other teams in the six-club circuit, in which Boston is represented for the first time, are the New York Yankees, Cincinnati Bengals, Buffalo Indians and Milwaukee Chiefs.

Head Coach Eddie Casey, former Harvard star and coach, has been working the Bears hard for their season opener. The Boston squad, cut to 25 players, is drilling twice a day at training camp headquarters at the Mount Pleasant House, Jefferson, Mass. "Casey's hopes for a well-balanced backfield received a blow when Nick Tranavitch of Rutgers, the nation's high scorer in 1938, was taken to the hospital with appendicitis.

In practice this morning, Team "A" lined up as follows: ends—Tom Nash (Brown) and Tom Cory (University of Utah); tackle—Vic Obeck (Springfield) and Karl Kaplanoff (Ohio State); guards—Vic Marino (Ohio State) and Sterling Shipka (St. Norbert); center—Joe Ratka (St. Vincent's); backs—Jerry Donnell (Oregon University), Joe Yablonski (Holy Cross), Morris Kohler (Oregon State) and Ernie Wheeler (North Dakota State).

California-Michigan — Michigan, with All-America Tom Harmon still on deck, looms as a title threat in the "Big Nine," while early season forecasts delegate California to the also-rans in the Pacific Coast Conference. Not that that has anything to do with this game. The guess is Michigan, despite the long trip.

Minnesota-Washington — Nobody knows how good Minnesota may be this year, and everyone agrees Washington, paced by Dean McAdams, will be there or thereabouts in its own sector. Bernie Bierman has some holes to fill at Minnesota, but we'll take a chance on the Gophers just the same.

Tulane-Boston College — The Eastern drums are beating loudly for Frank Leahy's Boston College Eagles, but this vote goes to Tulane, unbeaten during the regular season last year.

SCOTT BOY TO WATCH

U. C. L. A.-Southern Methodist — Just one more example of how many schedule makers have abandoned the old "breather" type of opener. S. M. U.'s Mustangs expect to give Texas A. and M. something to worry about in the southwest and rate the call over U. C. L. A., bereft of Kenny Washington.

Ohio State-Pitt — The Buckeyes won the Big Ten crown a year ago and apparently are better, if anything. Don Scott, powerful back, is the lad purified Pitt will need to watch. The choice is Ohio State.

North Carolina-Wake Forest — Here's a Southern Conference game that might explode some real fireworks. Peahead Walker has a great collection of ball players at Wake Forest (a number of them oddly enough from coal mining towns in Pennsylvania and West Virginia). Still, North Carolina.

Duke-Virginia Military — A good test for Duke's Blue Devils, but they should win handily.

Southern California-Washington State — Howard Jones suffered severe losses by graduation (three varsity quarterbacks and an All-America, Henry Smith, for instance), yet the Trojans are favored to win the Pacific Coast championship again. Therefore, Southern California.

Louisiana State-Mississippi — Purely a shot in the dark. Harry Mehre's Mississippians to take this southeastern conference fray.

Florida-Mississippi State — Doubt that Florida, under a new coach, Tom Lieb, is ready. Mississippi State.

Stanford-San Francisco — Clark Shaughnessy's debut at Stanford, and it could end on the wrong foot. Still Stanford.

Texas-Colorado — Might be pretty close, but the coin says Texas.

Texas Aggies-Texas A. and M. — The nation's No. 1 team of 1939 against a fairly rugged foe. Texas A. and M.

Navy-Williams and Mary — The Tars may be very good this year and look plenty strong enough for this one.

Vanderbilt-Washington and Lee — Absolutely no line, but taking Vanderbilt.

North Carolina State-Davidson — May be close. North Carolina State.

Denver-Iowa State — It's a tough trip, but Iowa State to avenge last year's beating.

Santa Clara-Utah — Santa Clara seems too sturdy.

Texas Christian-Centenary — T. C. U.'s Horned Frogs.

Virginia-Lehigh — Virginia.

Missouri-St. Louis — Taking Missouri.

tain of the opposing team for verification. A detailed score sheet showing the score of each competitor at all stages and the team total will be mailed to the league secretary by each local scorer within 24 hours.

A copy of all match bulletins must be mailed to the rifle editor of the Hearst newspaper with whom the league's entry has been filed after each competition of the league.

In the case of shoulder-to-shoulder matches, any target, the scoring of which has been protested by the captain of either competing team, will be immediately mailed by the official scorer to Ed Moore, Rifle Editor of the Hearst newspapers for final decision.

In the case of postal matches the team captain who desires to protest the scoring of any targets sent to him for verification by an opposing team will immediately forward the protested target to the rifle editor, for final decision.

The league secretary and the opposing team captains will be immediately notified as to the decision on protested targets.

Protests must be in writing and must be forwarded within 7 days of the date of firing of the match. Undo delay in forwarding a protest will render it invalid.

had arrived here, and B.C. will present a yell section of about 1000 at the kickoff (4 p. m. Boston time). The lateral pass will be a standby in the B.C. attack, unless Leahy was merely putting on a show for the spectators back in Atlanta. It may be that Leahy was only deceiving in front of a big audience, which could have included some football "fifth columnists" from Tulane.

En route, two rivals saluted the Eagles. Coach Howard and several Clemson players and "hell" at Calhoun, S. C. At Auburn, Ala., the entire student body topped the train, gave the players a noisy greeting and reminded them they are in for a November whipping when the Tigers visit Boston again.

There's a Stylish Note in Every Howard Topcoat

By every comparison, Howard Topcoats are the most unusual... the most exciting garments ever developed in the Howard tailor plants. They are so much finer than clothes usually associated with the popular price class, that you will scarcely believe your eyes when you view the splendid selection we have prepared for your inspection.

No matter what type of Topcoat you want you will find it here. Lampaka with its deep richness of soft velvety fabric... Covert cloth coats that are a rare find at our one low price. Reversible coats... Topcoats with removable zipper linings... Raglans... Single and double breasted coats... fly front coats. Plain colors... herringbones... diagonals and overplads. Come in and try one on... you'll agree there's a stylish note in every Howard Topcoat

To the people of BOSTON who drink Ale!

BOSTON is the greatest ale-consuming city in the United States. Seventy-five per cent of Bostonians drink ale, twenty-five per cent drink lager beer. Your preference for ale indicates that you like the tang of a non-sweet brew. You get that flavor in ale—but you can get it, too, in a Malt Beer... If you want ale—Genuine all-Malt Ale, we have it—but if you'll take us up on this invitation, you'll get more pleasure out of your beverages (and more value for your money) than you've ever had before:

Drink a glass of Trommer's Malt Beer. Here's a dry, non-sweet brew, made exactly like Europe's world-famous beers—of Hops and Barley-Malt, and no other grain! It costs us more to brew that way, but it makes superior beer. That's why Trommer's is the largest-selling Malt Beer in America.

This organization, with nearly a half century of expert brewing experience, promises you an unforgettable treat.

Was Their Home—Gaping holes, damaged roof and other ruin hold the attention of the two London boys, who luckily escaped unharmed when Nazi raiders blasted the dwelling, their home.

Crater

Spot news was brought right to the front door of the Associated Press' London headquarters during a Nazi air raid . . . as bomb fell there, leaving this big crater and damaging another building.
